

Task Outlined For Democrats By Stevenson

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson, pinpointing the task of the Democratic party's nationwide campaign opening today, says it should "give direction again to a foreign policy which wallows aimlessly and dangerously while a bunch of bickering helmets quarrel at the wheel."

The 1952 candidate for president promises, at the same time, that Democrats this fall will "talk issues . . . whether the Republicans want to or not."

Foreign Policy Decided
Stevenson spoke Wednesday night before 3,000 persons who paid $100 a plate at a Democratic fund-raising dinner officially commencing 36-year-old State Sen. George M. Leader's campaign for governor of Pennsylvania.

The Keystone State has had only one Democratic state administration in nearly 60 years.

Admitting that he is no "great admirer" of the Eisenhower administration's recent conduct of foreign affairs, Stevenson said he feels "no inclination" to blame the Republicans for the Indochina situation.

"Nor am I even tempted in this direction by Vice President Nixon's newest nonsense — that the Democrats are responsible for the loss of Indochina," he added.

Appealing to fellow Democrats to stick to "issues" this fall, he declared:

"We face the obligation to lift this campaign a considerable notch above the level of slander and ugly bitter name calling to which our political dialogue has sunk in recent months."

Party Cooperation Urged
Country must be placed above party, he said, and "decency above ambition" during the weeks of the campaign.

"If it is the Republicans' choice to generate heat, it is still our duty to shed light," he said.

"We know and have full regard for the value of vigorous political debate. But false, accusing cries of treachery and murder and treason are not the language of democratic debate. They are the language of hate — the epithets of enemies."

"And if the time ever comes when Republicans really regard Democrats or Democrats regard Republicans as enemies then truly the processes of democracy will stop — for those processes require, as between the two great parties, compromise, cooperation and respect."

Council To Scan Security In U. S.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP) — National Security Council members meeting with President Eisenhower in extraordinary session here Sunday reportedly will chart strategy for dealing with a broad range of Far Eastern problems created by Russia and Red China.

The Summer White House announced today the President also will confer Sunday with Atty. Gen. Brownell and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover on how to smash Communist infiltration at home.

The Brownell-Hoover conference with Eisenhower will center on how best to use the new Communist control weapons the 83rd Congress put on the law books.

Plans for the National Security Council meeting—the first full-scale session of that top policy-making unit ever to be held outside of Washington—were announced Wednesday by James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary.

He said Eisenhower was summoning the council to hear a firsthand report from Secretary of State Dulles on the new Southeast Asia security pact, signed Wednesday at Manila by the United States and seven other nations.

Georgia Nomination Won By Champion Of White Supremacy

ATLANTA (AP) — Lt. Gov. Marvin Griffin, the self-styled "white people's candidate," was swept to an apparently overwhelming victory in Wednesday's Democratic primary for the nomination as governor of Georgia.

Running with the blessing of Gov. Herman Talmadge whose white supremacy championship he is pledged to continue, Griffin piled up a huge lead for all-important county unit votes—allotted to the counties on the basis of two units for each seat in the State House of Representatives.

Former Gov. M. E. Thompson, who twice unsuccessfully opposed Talmadge, was far back in second place, still clinging to a fading hope that later returns might pull him into a runoff.

Marian Year Rites Draw 230,000 At Huge Soldier Field

CHICAGO (AP) — An estimated 230,000 persons filled huge Soldier Field to overflowing Wednesday night at a colorful, sacred Roman Catholic ceremony celebrating the Marian Year in the Chicago archdiocese.

The vast multitude of worshippers who paid reverent tribute to the mother of Christ filled every seat in the big lakefront stadium. Thousands pressed out into the grassy field near the specially built altar in midfield. Other thousands remained outside the stadium and heard the ceremonies over loud speakers.

Many Hurt In Crush
Traffic in the vicinity of the field was jammed for hours before and after the ceremonies.

The crush at the gates resulted in 19 persons being hospitalized. No serious injuries were reported but police said that about 100 persons were given treatment at first aid stations. Most of those affected fainted while others suffered from shock or exhaustion or were bruised as the throng pressed through the gates.

More than 8,000 men, women and children participated in the program. Included were four choirs of 4,000 voices, some 1,600 priests and prelates, Catholic fraternal groups, the American Legion color guard and drum and bugle corps and gaily costumed groups representing 16 of the nationalities of persons of the archdiocese.

Cardinal Presides
Except when voices were raised in song or when a vast unison of prayers were chanted, the great congregation was in reverent silence. One of the most solemn of the preliminary events was the massed recital of the Marian Year prayer, led by Samuel Cardinal Stritch, who celebrated a solemn pontifical mass.

In his sermon, the cardinal said the purpose of the gathering was to express "our deep, filial love for the mother of God and to beg her to intercede with her Divine Son for us and for all men in our miseries and necessities."

The Marian Year marks a century since the promulgation by Pope Pius IX in 1854 of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception.

Red China Coast Pounded Again By Formosa Forces

By SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist warships and planes pounded the Red China coast again today, even as U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles pledged that Nationalist China "doesn't stand alone against the forces of aggression . . ."

Dulles flew here from the Southeast Asia security conference in Manila and spent 3 hours with President Chiang Kai-shek. Only five hours after Dulles' special plane landed here he and his party were airborne again, headed for Tokyo.

Challenge To Communists
In a statement read to newsmen at the airport, he reiterated that the U. S. 7th Fleet is under orders to guard Formosa.

He said Communist China now is intensifying military and propaganda activity against the Nationalists "but we shall not be intimidated."

Freed As Killer, Detroit Dentist Seeks New Life

DETROIT (AP) — Dr. Kenneth B. Small, freed by court orders from confinement in a mental institution, today sought peaceful obscurity in which to rebuild his life.

The 31-year-old Detroit dentist, released Wednesday from the Ionia Hospital for the Criminally Insane, went into seclusion after admonishing newsmen to "let me go back to my way of life with no more pictures and no more stories."

Dr. Small was released automatically when the state declared him sane following a series of mental tests.

The handsome dentist was committed to the mental hospital when a jury acquitted him of first degree murder in the May 29 slaying of his wife's suitor by reason of temporary insanity. That verdict provides for immediate commitment to a mental institution until sanity is proved.

Dr. Small admitted he shot to death Jules Lack, 45-year-old New York businessman-playboy.

The dentist's wife, Edith, 30, mother of three small sons, is believed to be in California.

Asked about the possibility of a reconciliation, Dr. Small said, "I cannot discuss my personal problems until I have a chance to solve them in my own way and in my own time."

Street Plan Opposed

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The Kalamazoo Businessmen's Assn. Inc., petitioned Circuit Judge Raymond Fox for an injunction Wednesday to stop the city from appropriating $14,000 for a one-way street plan. The association said the plan would hinder business at stores on one-way streets.

Didn't Demand Secret Papers, McCarthy Says

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy defended today his call for federal employees to give him any evidence they have of wrongdoing. He argued he was merely asking them "to conform with the criminal code which requires them to give that evidence."

McCarthy testified for the second straight day as his own star witness before the special senate committee considering a resolution to censure him.

Seen As Duty
One of the charges is that he has asked government employees to give him secret documents in violation of the law and of their oaths of office.

McCarthy argued that as chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee he had a duty to seek such information.

"If I didn't try to get that information, then I should be subject to censure," he declared.

McCarthy contended the federal law specifically gives federal employees the right to furnish information to Congress, to congressional committees and individual congressmen.

Oaths Not Violated
He termed "completely false" the charges that he invited government employees to "violate their oaths of office."

To the contrary, McCarthy asserted, "they were being invited to conform with their oaths of office."

During the McCarthy-Army hearings, Army witnesses cited a presidential order—first issued by President Truman and continued by President Eisenhower—barring disclosure of loyalty information.

McCarthy contended then, and again today, that the duty of federal workers to reveal evidence of wrong doing takes precedence over presidential secrecy orders.

Bids On Prison Building Delayed

LANSING (AP) — The scheduled Sept. 28 bid opening on a new 162-man cell block at Marquette Prison was delayed probably two weeks today.

At the insistence of State Building Director A. N. Langius, copies of the plans were sent to the U. S. Bureau of Prisons for checking before the contract was advertised for bids.

Langius said the $950,000 building was intended to provide maximum security and that he wanted experts outside the state to check that the plans actually provided that.

Langius and State Corrections Director Gus Harrison said they are trying to arrange a trip to Washington in two weeks to discuss with federal experts plans for the proposed 600-man minimum security prison at Ionia.

Detroit Men Admit Setting Fires With Damage Of $250,000

DETROIT (AP) — Police said today two Detroit men have admitted setting fires that have caused thousands of dollars damage in Wayne (Detroit) and Oakland (Pontiac) counties in recent weeks.

Detroit Detective Vernon Smith said Stanley Murdock, 25, had admitted setting three fires and was being questioned about a $150,000 blaze at the Wells Lumber Co. in Detroit last Saturday.

State Police Sgt. Oramel O'Farrell said Don J. Roller, 24, had admitted setting seven fires that caused an estimated $100,000 damage.

Murdock was picked up for questioning Tuesday night near an apartment house fire. A witness told police he had seen Murdock enter the lobby, carrying papers under his arm, a short time before the fire was discovered. Police questioned him about the lumber yard fire because he lived near the scene.

Roller told police he set fires so he could play fireman. Officers said he would run up, identify himself as a volunteer fireman from another community who was "just driving by" and join regular fire-fighters. A fireman's helmet, boots and raincoat were found in his car.

A suburban fire chief became suspicious after Roller could not identify the chief of his supposed volunteer department and reported him to police.

Beating Kills Wife

FLINT (AP) — Floyd Taylor, 29, of Flint, was charged with first degree murder Wednesday in the fatal beating of his 32-year-old common law wife, Joyce. She died of a brain hemorrhage in a taxicab on her way to a hospital Sunday.

Senators Chill McCarthy At Censure Hearing

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy said "I felt that . . ."

Sen. Watkins cut him short. "Let's not get into what you felt," said Watkins.

In a sentence Watkins pointed out the difference between last spring's televised McCarthy-Army hearings and the present untelevised hearings by a Senate committee on demands that McCarthy be censured for his official conduct.

The Wisconsin Republican is in an icebox. Washington has been sweating in a savage burst of summer. But the caucus room, where the present hearings are held, is cold. It's not the temperature. It's the attitude.

Not Hostile
The committee of six senators, sitting across a long table from McCarthy, look at him as coolly and impassively as if he were a stranger. They do not appear hostile. They seem impersonal.

It apparently has been enough to chill McCarthy.

Chairman Watkins, dignified, white-haired Utah Republican and onetime judge, said repeatedly before these hearings began he would conduct them like an examination in a courtroom.

McCarthy tried once on Watkins what he did so many times successfully to Sen. Mundt (R-SD), chairman of the McCarthy-Army hearings; he tried to interrupt. Watkins banged him into silence with his gavel.

McCarthy hasn't tried it again. Since he emerged into national prominence four years ago, McCarthy has been the center of an emotional thunderstorm. The best illustration is the intense feeling he has aroused in friend and foe.

Personal Feelings Out
In the hearings on his fight with the Army, McCarthy interrupted as he pleased, made speeches, new charges, fresh attacks and o-

Two Lead Race For Beauty Title

By JAMES F. TOMLINSON
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — A California charmer with a knockout figure and a Washington, D.C., lass who can sing held the lead today in the race for the Miss America 1955 crown.

Miss District of Columbia, Linda Maud Weisbrod, 21, and Miss California, 19-year-old Lee Ann Meriwether of San Francisco, won preliminary contests Wednesday night before an estimated audience of 6,000.

Linda Maud's rendition of the operatic aria "O Mio Fernando" was the judges' choice over the other entries in the talent competition. A coed at American University in Washington, Linda Maud hopes eventually to get a job with the Metropolitan Opera.

Wearing a skin-tight swimsuit, Miss California got the nod over her competitors in the bathing suit division test. The brunette teen-ager stands 5 feet 8½ inches tall and weighs 124. She has a 34½ inch bust, 22-inch waist and 35-inch hips. She is studying drama at the City College of San Francisco.

Paraguay's Capital Loaned $7,200,000 For Water System

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Export-Import Bank announced today a $7,200,000 loan to Paraguay for financing a U. S.-built public water system for Asuncion, its capital city.

Asuncion, with a population of about 250,000, has no public water supply system. Its water comes from privately owned wells, rain-water cisterns and carts which retail water throughout the city.

Peninsula Beauty From Chassell Is Detroit Fair Queen

DETROIT (AP) — An 18-year-old statuesque beauty from the Upper Peninsula Copper Country is Miss Michigan State Fair of 1954.

Margaret Mackrain of Chassell received her crown Wednesday night from Gov. Williams. It was the second time the governor had done the honors. He crowned her Miss Michigan Upper Peninsula at the Escanaba fair Aug. 25.

Miss Mackrain, a 5-foot-8 brunette, won out over 27 other contestants who had won beauty crowns and titles in contests throughout Michigan.

She said she expects to enter the University of Michigan this fall to study for a degree in medicine. For the last year she has been an assistant hospital technician at Alameda, Calif.

Meanwhile the junior grand champion steer brought the highest price per pound ever paid in the 105-year history of the State Fair.

The steer, a 1,010 lb. Hereford owned by Phillip House, 15, of Rosebush, was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Broni of New Hudson for $2 a pound. Broni said he intended to give the animal to the St. Joseph Catholic Church at South Lyons and to the public school at New Hudson.

Two Dearborn merchants paid $1.25 a pound for the grand champion steer, a 775-pound Aberdeen-Angus owned by the Great Oaks Stock Farm of Rochester.

The Peters Sausage Co. of Ann Arbor paid 60 cents a pound for the grand champion barrow, a medium Chester-White owned by A. L. Barnhart of Reading.

An 80-pound Southdown the grand champion fat lamb owned by 12-year-old Sally Chapman of Newport, was purchased for $150 a pound by a Ferndale merchant.

Labor Day Patrols Cost State $30,000; Save 10 To 15 Lives

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan spent about $30,000 to call out the National Guard to help in Labor Day traffic patrols and thereby saved 10 to 15 lives, Gov. G. Mennen Williams said today.

For the first time in the state's history, the governor declared a state of traffic emergency over the holiday weekend, and 68 guardsmen were ordered to duty.

The use of guardsmen for this purpose followed the example of Tennessee, where the device has been in use over holidays for some years. Wisconsin also experimented with the device this year.

The Michigan guardsmen's services permitted the full complement of state police and sheriffs' deputies to hold the death toll to 21 over the holiday. This compared to 35 over the Fourth of July weekend this year and 31 over Labor Day 1953.

Williams said the experiment was a success. This was demonstrated, he said, by the fact that only five persons died on state trunklines, where the augmented patrols were concentrated. Over Labor Day 1953, 21 died on the trunklines.

The governor said traffic was apparently as heavy over the weekend as a year ago, but that "the facility of travel was better because of the point control by National Guardsmen directing the flow of traffic at congested points."

The assignment of one guardsman and one policeman or deputy in a patrol car permitted a quadrupling of the number of cars combing the highways, State Police Commissioner Joseph M. Childs said.

Primary School Fund Totals $29,582,269, Slightly Above 1953

LANSING (AP) — Aud. Gen. John B. Martin reported today he was mailing $29,582,269 to county treasurers for distribution to schools as the first of two installments of the current primary school interest fund.

The second payment, usually smaller, will be made in November.

The money will be distributed to schools on a basis of $17.78 per child in the 1953 school census. The current payment compares with $29,415,578 at the same time last year.

Counterfeiter Turns Out Money In Prison

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Luis Eduardo Shelly, serving seven years for counterfeiting, had another eight years added to his sentence today. Officials charged he kept in practice by running off bills on a portable press concealed in his cell.

Warders at the national penitentiary said Shelly had been selling the homemade currency to prisoners as they completed their sentences.

Modern French City Of 32,500 Left In Ruins

ALGIERS, Algeria. (AP) — A tremendous earthquake struck northern Algeria today, blasting the town of Oranville and wreaking a toll which unofficial reports put at approximately 800 dead.

The French National Defense Ministry said in Paris that it knew of at least 200 deaths.

Eyewitnesses reported that the city of 32,500 inhabitants looked as if it had gone through a heavy air bombardment.

Worst In 40 Years
At the Strasbourg Observatory, the shock was timed at 1:07 a.m. (7:07 p.m., CST Wednesday). Scientists there said it was the worst to hit Algeria in 40 years.

Oranville, a modern French town of 32,500 people built on an ancient Roman site, lies about 100 miles west of Algiers on the main rail line to Oran. It is the center of a rich farming valley. Some reports said it was 20 per cent demolished.

Barracks, stadium, post office, prison, hospital, two hotels, police headquarters, a small dam and a new Catholic cathedral all collapsed or suffered heavy damage. About 40 travelers' were buried alive in their beds when the Hotel Baudouin fell in on them.

Power Cut Off
Electric power was out and communications were cut. All available troops and ambulances were rushed to the area.

Gov. Gen. Roger Leonard hurried to take command of rescue operations on the spot.

The area worst hit is between Tenes, on the Mediterranean coast, and Miliana, about halfway between Oranville and Algiers. Between Tenes and Oranville, all villages were reported heavily damaged, with Vauban, Duperre and Rouina among the worst hit.

An airlift for the injured was set up between Maison Blanche Airport at Algiers and the earthquake area. Among the first victims to arrive, many were suffering from fractured skulls. They said shocks had been felt throughout the area until 6 a.m. (1 a.m. CST).

A 400-bed field hospital was set up at Oranville, and five surgeons were sent from Algiers.

Atomic Submarine Joins Fleet Sept. 30

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nautilus, first atomic powered submarine, will become a member of the fleet Sept. 30.

Formal commissioning ceremonies will be held then at Groton, Conn., where she has been building since 1952.

The Navy, announcing the commissioning date, said the Nautilus will begin her tests after the final equipment has been installed following the commissioning. This, it is understood, probably will be during the latter half of October.

Skipper of the huge, nuclear-engineered submersible — the first of four either building or planned — will be Cmdr. Eugene P. Wilkinson, of San Diego, Calif. Lt. Dean L. Axene will be executive officer.

Fire Destroys Farm Residence

The farm residence of Maurice Verbrigghe and family at St. Nicholas was destroyed by fire early this morning. All of the contents also were lost in the blaze and members of the family barely had time to escape before flames engulfed the farm home.

Volunteer fire departments of Rock and Perkins responded to the fire call a few minutes after two a. m. but the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the house or any of the contents. Firemen confined their efforts to preventing a spread of the fire to nearby buildings.

The cause of the fire is unknown. Marcel Verbrigghe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Verbrigghe, awakened about two a. m. and discovered the smoke. He awakened his parents and the family escaped from the burning building. Calls for the fire departments were placed from a neighbor's phone.

Mrs. E. R. Burns, Former Resident, Dies In Texas

Mrs. Edward R. Burns, 73, a sister-in-law of R. W. Coolman, 612 Ludington St., died unexpectedly of a heart attack Sunday evening at her home in Smithfield, Tex.

Mrs. Burns, who lived in Escanaba many years, was born, Clara Spargo, in Negaunee, and came to Escanaba as a child with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Spargo Sr. Her marriage to Mr. Burns, who died in January of this year, took place in 1902.

She is survived by four sons and one daughter, two sisters, Jane who lives in Los Angeles and Libby of Houston, Tex., and one brother, Charles Spargo of Green Bay.

Marquette Boy Is Fatally Shot While Playing With Rifle

MARQUETTE — Ronald Eck, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eck, Marquette, was fatally injured Wednesday afternoon in a gun accident at a camp at Stillman, near Munising.

Arthur Moote, Alger county sheriff, said the boy was shot in the forehead while playing with a .22 caliber rifle. He was pronounced dead at the Munising hospital. The boy was vacationing at the camp.

Clayton Reports On Parks And Forestry Work For Past Year

The work of the Escanaba city department of parks and forestry for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, was reported in summary by Robert Clayton, parks and forestry superintendent, filed today with City Manager A. V. Aronson.

During the past year 266 tree inspections were made in response to calls; 254 tree work orders were completed; 53 trees were removed; and 85 trees were planted.

In the pruning program hundreds of trees were cut back to give clearance for pedestrians on sidewalks, vehicles on the streets, and to keep electric lines clear of branches. Forty-two trees received surgery and bracing. During the year storms damaged 117 trees in the city.

In other work the parks and forestry crews sprayed 1,214 city blocks for control of flies and mosquitoes, maintained the city tree nursery near the disposal plant; kept park areas mowed and neat by cleaning up refuse.

Sportsmen's Club Plans Clubhouse

Delta County Sportsmen's Club will hold a meeting at 7:30 Tuesday evening in Carpenter's Hall to make a choice of buildings and sites for its clubhouse. The meeting will be the regular September meeting of the group.

Wednesday evening the sportsmen inspected the Soo Line's North Escanaba depot. A building and site in the Willow Creek area was looked over a few weeks ago.

At next week's meeting figures on costs will be presented and members will be asked to decide on building and site as well as authorize committees to acquire both. Main entertainment feature of the meeting will be the showing of more of Bill DeCock's movies of outdoor sports.

Faculty At Holy Name High School Announced

The complete faculty of the new Holy Name Catholic Central High School was announced today by Rev. O'Neill D'Amour, superintendent of the parochial school.

Boys attending the school are taught by the Christian Brothers. Director of the Brothers, Brother Athanasius, also the boys' principal, is teaching American Government and English III. Brother Joel is teaching religion IV, economics, English I and typing I, while religion II, general mathematics, bookkeeping and general business are taught by Brother Theodore. Instructing the classes of religion I and English, II, III and IV will be Brother Henry.

Shop classes, Religion III, Latin and mechanical drawing are the subjects which Brother Nicholas is teaching. Brother Lawrence is instructing the classes of religion I, algebra I and II and plane geometry. The American history course is taught by Fr. Dunstan, O. F. M., spiritual director of Holy Name.

Assisting with the teaching of boys' classes are Coach Tom St. Germain and Ronald Feuerstein, assistant football coach. St. Germain instructs the physical education and world history classes, while biology A and B, general science and one physical education course are taught by Mr. Feuerstein.

The girls' classes, all except religious instruction, are being taught by the Notre Dame and Franciscan sisters. Sister M. Edwald, SSND, the senior advisor, instructs history, while the junior

Practical Nurses Cap Introduced At Capping Ceremony

The newly adopted design-copyright cap of the Michigan Practical Nurse Association was introduced at an impressive capping ceremony last evening in the doctor's dining room at St. Francis Hospital.

A grey velvet band and the proper insignia, PN or LPN, stitched on the left side of the cuff identify the new cap. A need for this new cap, which will serve as a protection to the public, became evident after the bill for the licensure of practical nurses was passed and became a law in September 1952. The new cap will go into effect statewide beginning Oct. 1, 1954.

Mrs. Edward Erickson, president of the Practical Nurses Association, introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Miss Elizabeth Vickers, R. N. Miss Vickers placed the LPN cap on the president of the district association first. After this, she placed the cap upon officers and members from Menominee, Manistique and Escanaba. All then joined with Sister Roberta, with upraised arm in the Florence Nightingale pledge.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served by the chairman, Mrs. Gladys Birkenmeier, from a table decorated with lovely fall flowers. Assisting in the serving were Miss Marilyn DeMeuse and Miss Margaret McCleod.

St. Anne's Plans Two Week Mission

Rev. Clifford Nedeau, pastor of St. Anne's Church, has announced that a two week's mission will be conducted in the parish commencing Sept. 12-26. The first week of the mission will be for the women of the parish, followed by a week's mission for the men of the parish.

Father Norman Weaver, Rector, of St. Thomas Scholastic, London, Ontario, will deliver the sermons. All evening services will be held at St. Anne's new church.

Escanaba JC's Plan Program

The Junior Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting of the season last night at the House of Ludington. Jack Manning president of the Junior Chamber suggested a program of projects for the coming year. Among the more important were a Talent Show, a golf tournament, Voice of Democracy program, Teen Age Road-e-o and a Home and Builders Show. Ben Johns, Martin Houk and Duncan Cameron were appointed to serve on the Voice of Democracy committee. Wm. Meiers, Al Lord, Claude Leclerc and Art Anderson were appointed to the Halloween Dance committee.

E. J. Drury of Menominee and Ralph E. Huhtala, Kingsford, a national director of the J. C.'s addressed the members. Mr. Drury who was one of the original members of the first club in St. Louis, Mo. traced the development of the chamber from an association of dance clubs to the "Young Men's Progressive Association" in October 1915 into its development as a national organization in 1919. Mr. Drury pointed out that in 1919 there were 12 chambers with a budget of $300, where today there are 2,526 clubs with a national budget of $395,385.

Huhtala told of his attendance at the recent national board meeting in Tulsa, Okla. He said that the program and objectives of the organization today are the same as they were in 1919 with emphasis on youth, civic projects for the betterment of their communities and to train leaders for tomorrow. Huhtala pointed out that the Michigan clubs sponsor leadership training courses and at their U. P. Board Meeting Sept. 26th they will conduct a number of forums to train leaders and to help clubs develop their various projects.

Briefly Told

Immunization Clinic—An immunization clinic will be held Friday, Sept. 11 from 1 to 3 at the county health department.

Dog License—A new supply of dog licenses has been received by County Treasurer Ann S. Villeneuve. The tags were manufactured locally because the regular state tags had been used up and no new ones could be ordered. There are 500 tags on hand at present.

Motorists Ticketed—Escanaba police have issued traffic violation tickets to the following motorists: Joseph Allsworth Jr., Jaeger Road, improper license plate; Percy A. Kennedy, 1812 Lake Shore Drive, speeding; Guilford Brooks, Huntsville, Canada, disobeying traffic signal; Arthur Weberg, Wells, speeding; Arnold A. Taylor, 809 S. 18th St., disobeying traffic signal; James E. Noel, Wells, defective head light.

Township Cars Damaged In Traffic Mishap

Two cars were damaged in an accident near Hyde on County road 533 about 3/4 of a mile west of US-2 at 6:30 Thursday night. Frank P. Blake, Rt. 1 Bark River, told Undersheriff Clarence Johnson that he was traveling west on 533 and failed to notice a car behind him when he began a left turn into a driveway.

The other driver, Reinhold Bittner, Rt. 1, Bark River, told Undersheriff Johnson that he had just started to pass as Blake began to turn. Bittner struck Blake in the rear left side. Damage to each car was estimated at $175. Bittner was ticketed for driving with an expired driver's license.

THOSE IN UNIFORM

Raymond J. Beaudoin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Med Beaudoin, 306 S. Ninth St., Escanaba, recently was promoted to corporal while serving with 3rd Infantry Division in Korea. Beaudoin, intelligence sergeant in the 65th Regiment's 3rd Battalion Headquarters Company, entered the Army in May 1953 and arrived in Korea last November.

Candidates Debate

DETROIT (AP)—Democratic Gov. Williams and Donald S. Leonard, his Republican opponent in his bid for a fourth consecutive term as governor, will debate issues before the Economic Club of Detroit Sept. 20.

Church is one place where people seem to think they can get just as much as ever for a quarter.

Gertrude Lewis Is The Bride Of Curtis Bannister

Miss Gertrude Lewis of Marquette and Curtis James Bannister of Detroit were united in marriage at a 9 a. m. ceremony Saturday, Sept. 4, at St. Charles Church in Rapid River. Father Thomas Andary was celebrant of the Nuptial High Mass, and John and Robert Grenier of Gladstone, cousins of the bride, were altar boys.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lewis of Marquette. Mrs. Vincent Grothaus and Curtis Bannister of Detroit are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon net over taffeta with a lace bodice and an altar length veil. She carried a white crystal rosary, the gift of the bridegroom. Her flowers were a bridal bouquet of tea roses and carnations.

In Pastel Shades
Gowns of nylon net over taffeta with chintilly lace boleros were worn by her attendants. Miss Theresa Lewis, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore pink and Miss Bertha Erlfourth of Gladstone, bridesmaid, was in blue. They carried colonial bouquets of gladioli.

Llewellyn Mosier, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and Gerald Lewis of Marquette, brother of the bride was groomsmen. Theodore Pineau and James Weeks ushered.

Completing the bridal party were Sandra and Marvin Mosier, twin cousins of the bridegroom, who served as flower girl and ring bearer.

Bouquets of gladioli decorated the altar for the service. The music of the wedding mass was sung by Miss Anne Geigel of Escanaba with Dale Tienert, organist.

Breakfast and Reception
The bride's mother wore a navy and white ensemble and the bridegroom's mother was attired in turquoise blue. Their corsages were white carnations. The wedding breakfast at Jack's was followed by a reception for 200 guests.

The newlyweds will live in Detroit.

Wedding guests included Mrs. Edward Neuman and daughter Marinedra and Mrs. Vincent Grothaus of Detroit, Miss Meryle Johnston of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. John Laundre of Escanaba, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis and family, Green Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and son, Stanley, Marquette, Mr. and Mrs. John Heric, Iron Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Lewis and family of Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry LaBumbard and family of Bark River.

Chrysler Reopens

DETROIT (AP)—Some 12,500 idle Chrysler Corp. Jefferson-Kercheval plant workers were told Wednesday they would start returning to work Sept. 20 to produce the 1955 Chrysler. The new models are expected to be introduced in November. The company has been closed down for retooling since early August.

Daggett Lions Open 4-H Fair

The sixth annual Menominee County 4-H Club Fair will open Friday at Daggett and will continue through Sunday under sponsorship of the Daggett Lions Club. The Daggett Hall will house the exhibits of fruits and vegetables entered by farmers and gardeners of Menominee County, as well as the 4-H Club members.

Merton Voelker, king Lion, reported that the fair this year will have, for the first time, displays of farm machinery and commercial exhibits.

Merchandise awards will be presented winners in the agricultural fair for the largest and best varieties of fruits and vegetables.

The fair is sponsored annually by the Daggett Lions Club for the benefit of the Menominee County 4-H Club program. Among members of the Lions Club aiding in arrangements for the fair are the following:

Edgar Strandt, commercial exhibits; Lester Walcutt, 4-H Club exhibits; Vernon Ross, floor arrangements; Lawrence Mulger, farm crops; Donald Rivard, refreshments. Wives of the Lions will work as clerks in the several departments, and Dick Lucky is secretary of the fair.

St. Patrick's Guild To Meet Monday

All women of St. Patrick's parish are invited to attend the September meeting of St. Patrick's Guild, which will be held in the parish hall Monday, Sept. 13, at 7:30 p. m.

Officers in charge of the meeting will be Mrs. Arthur Brien, president; Mrs. Kathryn Byrns, vice president; Miss Agnes Burke, treasurer, and Mrs. Lee McMillan, secretary.

St. Theresa's Circle will sponsor a bridge party following the meeting. Chairman is Mrs. Robert Weber and Mrs. Harry Jamar is co-chairman.

Levels Of Great Lakes Decline

The levels of Lakes Superior and Michigan-Huron started their annual decline in August, and Lakes Erie and Ontario continued the decline which they began in July. The Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, reports that unless there are unusually heavy rains in September the lakes will decline at nearly average rates during that month.

August levels for all the Great Lakes were down over the previous month. Rate of decline in feet during August was: Superior-.08, Michigan-Huron-.08, Erie-.22, Ontario-.48. Elevations are based on feet above mean tide at New York. Records on the lake levels are continuous since 1860.

Floriano Post Awarded Citation

HERMANVILLE — Leo Floriano Post 340, American Legion Department of Michigan, is the recipient of a citation received from the State Department Headquarters in recognition for its work in the "Americanism" program.

This report is based on the Americanism activities as submitted on the "Americanism and Post Activity Report" form.

The Floriano Post was noted out for the Clarence W. Taylor trophy by the Ypsilanti Post 282. However, the Floriano Post received its citation in the Intermediate Post Class (76 to 225 members).

The Ypsilanti Post 282 is one of the largest Legion Posts in Michigan.

Editorials—

It's Not Likely That Gov. Dewey Is Through With Public Office

GOV. Thomas E. Dewey's decision not to run for public office this fall removes from the New York ballot a name that has been a powerful vote-getter in the nation's most populous state. The development is, of course, an adverse blow to the Republican organization in that state although not necessarily a fatal one.

Despite two defeats in bids for election to the Presidency, Thomas Dewey at 52 is still a political giant. This was demonstrated by his reelection to the governorship of New York on each occasion following his defeat in presidential campaigns.

Gov. Dewey in his announcement of plans to retire from public office this fall emphasized his intention to play a vigorous part in the coming state campaign. This means, in all probability, an intention to have a hand in choosing a successor as Republican nominee for governor and then contributing all that he can towards the election of the Republican candidate. He has already indicated his belief that U. S. Senator Ives would make an "excellent" governor.

The announcement by Gov. Dewey that he will not seek public office this fall does not mean, of course, that he is through with public office. On the contrary, most people expect that Dewey, comparatively young in years in spite of long political experience, will be amenable to a call to public service again, perhaps at the national level.

The possibility that Gov. Dewey may be opening the way for an appointment to President Eisenhower's cabinet must be considered. His name has been mentioned in cabinet speculation numerous times. An obstacle to such service in the past has been the fact that he was elected governor of New York and he must necessarily have felt a sense of obligation to the citizens who elected him.

The fact that Gov. Dewey has indicated an intention to remain in the political whirl means, we think, that he has not abandoned the idea of public service for himself.

Reds Understand Realities

IN all the hubbub over other headlines, some of them telling of lesser events, the new military agreement between Yugoslavia, Turkey and Greece drew little attention. It deserved a good deal.

The pact formalizes the extension of the West's defensive network from Scandinavia south and east across Europe to the fringe of Asia. It brings into the defense ring three of the toughest fighting peoples on this earth. An estimated 1,500,000 men under arms are added to Western strength at one of the free world's most vulnerable sectors.

Most of the nations in the Western chain are members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Yugoslavia, of course, is not, but this new agreement will serve to warp it closer into the Western fabric.

Much talk is heard these days about how the Communists are in a mood for peace. That may be temporarily the case. If it is, we can thank NATO and such auxiliary defense groupings as the new Balkan pact, for it is only such hard realities as these that ever give the Russians pause.

Try And Stop Me By BENNETT CERF

Bob Hope claims to have discovered the prize Scotchman of them all. "This fellow Sandy," he says, "even got married in his own back yard, so his chickens could get the rice thrown by the guests. Now he sits up nights to keep an eye on his wife's vanishing cream."

Cecil Beaton, whose book, "The Glass of Fashion," reveals that he knows only the best people in London, describes a harrowing crisis at a fancy dress ball there. A certain Marquessa Casati insisted upon appearing in an electrically equipped suit of armor pierced with arrows that blinked on and off like a traffic signal at a busy intersection. Her entrance was a sensation; at the moment of being plugged in, the costume short-circuited and sent the screaming Marquessa into the nearest backward somersault ever executed outside of a circus arena.

The Doctor Says...

Chills, Sweats Among Symptoms of Undulant Fever

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Mrs. P would not encounter so much misunderstanding if her friends read this column. She says "I have just been released from the hospital with undulant fever and everyone I talk to says they have never heard of such a disease."

Although undulant fever has been discussed several times in this column before it evidently needs further emphasis and certainly it is a disease which causes a great deal of concern to physicians and health officials. It is also extremely important to the livestock and dairy interest.

Undulant fever is one kind of brucellosis, all of them being germ diseases of different varieties. One of the difficulties with human brucellosis is that it is a disease which can cause variable symptoms. In a typical acute attack ever, chills, sensations, excessive sweating, loss of weight, pains in the muscles and headache are quite common.

THE FEVER tends to go up and down in a wave-like manner, and it is this characteristic which has given it the name of "undulant fever."

But all too often the disease does not show typical symptoms and can be confused with other conditions. It is sometimes responsible for backache and other signs of muscular or joint rheumatism.

Some years ago one of the leading research workers on this disease contracted it but was considered to be a "nervous case" for many years before the true cause was identified.

GENERALLY, brucellosis is a chronic and long-lasting condition. It is difficult to diagnose because there is no single test which identifies it with certainty (except a blood test which does not always reveal it when present).

It is also difficult to treat because it calls for a treatment which will not only control the infection but eradicate the germ from the body. Recently promising results, however, have been reported with mixtures of various sulfa drugs and antibiotics.

Epidemics have been reported from germ infected milk. In fact, the disease is usually contracted by drinking infected milk or coming in contact with meat from infected animals. It attacks many animals and this fact has made it necessary sometimes to destroy whole herds or flocks.

ALTHOUGH BRUCellosis remains a serious health problem, some progress is being made. It is being fought in livestock on farms. Research work on better methods of diagnosis and treatment are being carried out in many laboratories throughout the world.

The elimination of the disease in dairy herds and other livestock, the use of pasteurized milk, and care in avoiding infection by contact with infected meats should do much to cut down the danger of contracting brucellosis.

Also there is real hope that still better treatments will be developed. Still badly needed, however, are more reliable methods of diagnosis, particularly for the chronic variety.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Senator Watkins of Utah, chairman of the special committee of six which is considering the resolution to "censure" Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, says frankly that the Senate makes up its own mind irrespective of "precedents."

What the public doesn't realize perhaps is that some of these "precedents" are very bad and constitute conduct unbecoming to the United States Senate itself.

For it will hardly be believed today but there were 28 United States senators who once voted to unseat the duly elected United States senator from Utah, Reed Smoot, because he was a high official of the Mormon Church and because various senators didn't like the church's attitude toward polygamy.

Although the constitution says "No religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States," a motion was made in the Senate on January 27, 1904, to unseat Mr. Smoot. He was not a polygamist himself and his church had already issued a manifesto banning plural marriages but nevertheless after a protracted investigation a Senate committee rendered on June 11, 1906, a majority report recommending that Mr. Smoot be unseated. On February 20, 1907, the Senate itself voted 42 to 28 to permit him to retain his seat and 20 senators did not vote. Mr. Smoot became one of the most respected members of the Senate, was re-elected several times, and for several years served as chairman of the all-powerful finance committee. Another Mormon—Senator Watkins of Utah—is one of the most respected members of the Senate today.

NO COURT RESTRAINT

If the Senate, however, had the power in 1907 to expel a member because the senators of that day didn't like the Mormon Church, another group of senators tomorrow can expel someone else because the Senate may not like the allegiance of a senator to the Catholic church or to some other church. No court can restrain the Senate or the House from doing an improper act with respect to its members as each House is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members.

This makes it all the more important that United States senators should not be governed by the passions of hysteria of the hour and that they now should establish a set of "standards" and, in fairness, declare that the punishment for violating the new rules should not be imposed on any senator on an ex-post facto or retroactive basis.

For there is hardly a single charge leveled against Senator McCarthy which could not have been made the subject of a "censure" resolution against many other senators in the past.

Take the charge about the alleged FBI document to which Senator McCarthy referred during the McCarthy-Stevens hearings but which he never made public. It contained data on personnel procedures rather than national security secrets. Yet if the "standard" is that a senator cannot make public information arbitrarily marked "top secret" by an executive department or agency, then the case of Senator Edwin Johnson of Colorado, Democrat, could have been investigated for possible "censure" because of what he revealed about the hydrogen bomb in a television speech in November, 1949. He was at the time a member of the joint congressional committee on atomic energy which regularly was being given secret information by the Atomic Energy Commission.

IMPROPER DISCLOSURE?

The Colorado senator, who incidentally is a member of the committee of six trying McCarthy, vehemently denied that he had said in his speech anything which had not been previously published, but a Washington newspaper charged editorially that he had violated proper practice with respect to government secrets and pointed out that President Truman immediately afterward summoned the chairman of the joint congressional committee on atomic energy and the attorney general to the White House and issued instructions against improper disclosure of security data which was being made available to congressional committees.

Among the charges filed against Senator McCarthy are some referring to his intemperate characterizations of fellow senators. But Senator Flanders himself made a speech recently insinuating something improper about the Wisconsin senator's personal life and the innuendo was not lost on the television audience. Instances will be found involving senators who were never "censured" for utterances during a campaign impugning the motives and integrity of senators and others in public life.

Likewise, many members of Congress have declined to accept an "invitation" to testify about their personal affairs before a congressional committee, and it so happens that the Gillette committee never issued a subpoena to Senator McCarthy when it asked him to appear. If, instead of exchanging letters as he did, in which he categorically denied the truth of the accusations, Senator McCarthy had ignored a subpoena, he could, of course, have been charged with contempt.

This Slump Really Different; Retail Price Levels Stay Up

By JOHN W. LOVE

CLEVELAND —(NEA)— This country has had numerous recessions in business as deep as the one we're now in, or deeper. But this one is really different.

For the first time, the level of retail prices as measured by the cost of living has failed to sink. Likewise for the first time, wholesale prices on the average have held level, despite the severe drop in farm products. And the hourly earnings of production workers have risen during a recession.

These circumstances are as unusual as the boom in the stock market at a time when business volume has been under prosperity levels.

What does it all mean? For one thing, it's recession with a brand new note, price stability. For another, people have had plenty of money to buy, but they put it off. The nation's savings have not been impaired.

Previous articles in this series showed how industrial production in this country dropped about 10 per cent since the slump set in a year ago, soon after the end of the Korea war, and how the numbers of unemployed men and women began to rise before the end of last year.

Both in this recession and the one in 1948-50, merchants and manufacturers let their inventories of goods run off. That meant they cut their buying of goods or materials, and so the factories laid off employees.

But in 1948 and 1949 they substantially lowered their prices. This time they have not done so—on the average.

True, many stores ran clearance sales and in that way got their stocks down, but their price cuts didn't lower the average level of retail prices to amount to anything. As many prices increased as went down.

True, dealers in automobiles began making liberal trades, but the manufacturers didn't respond with cuts of their own. Other great industries didn't have even that much price reduction.

Consumer prices from the Bureau of Labor Statistics show that retail prices on the whole have changed little if at all in this recession. The same prices were dropping noticeably five years ago.

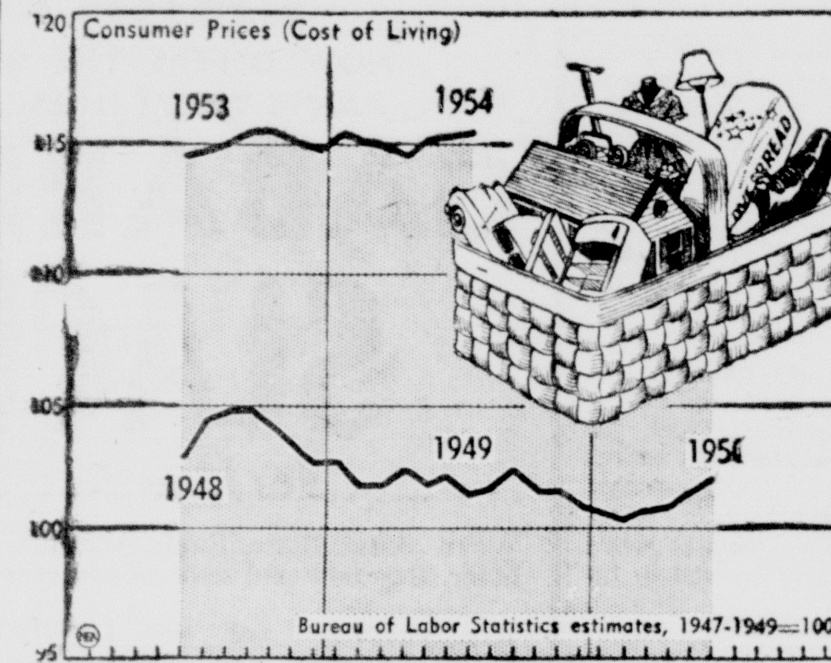

Wholesale prices for the same periods show more fluctuation, but the difference in performance is the same. It is said that never in American history have wholesale prices been so stable as in the last two years.

Business customs must have changed. This time businessmen large and small must have confidence that recovery will not be long delayed. There is clear evidence that industrial production has stabilized.

Some upturns have appeared and more are probably on the way—the customary revivals of autumn, if not more than that. Retailers have commenced buying in larger volume. They and their customers are giving up waiting for the lower prices they could expect in every previous slump they can recall.

But it still remains to be seen whether recovery can set in with the same energy as in 1950, without offering the customer lower prices. Goods are being improved in quality, it is true. Merchandise must be new and better. But prices are stable.

For most of the last 13 years, consumers bought goods because they feared the prices would rise.

NOTABLE DIFFERENCE between this year's business dip compared to 1948-50 slump is that consumer prices, the cost of living, have held a great deal steadier. Downward trend in chart above was sharp in earlier dip; current line is almost static.

This was the effect of inflation. The fear of inflation has faded, but there is some possibility it will return.

It might return because of easy money and lower interest rates. The Federal Reserve Board has pursued an easy money policy for more than a year. Twice this year it has reduced the interest rate on its loans to member banks, anticipating they would do the same for their own borrowers.

Last year's fear of "hard money," or money "hard to get," has disappeared. The Federal Reserve is gaining in its mastery of monetary policy.

An easy-money policy is one of the classic remedies for a business slump. Its aim is to encourage borrowing for installment payments or on mortgages or for business expansion. If borrowers respond, the volume of construction will remain high, and probably pull up business activity in general.

Then we might get another whiff of inflation. We might get it this fall. The summer's boom in the stock market may have some connection with all this, and the belief that a slump can be cured without old-fashioned price cutting.

The fact that hourly wages in industry have increased slightly during this recession helps to explain why employers did not cut their prices. While unemployment has been high (more than 3,000,000) the majority of people lucky enough to have jobs made a little more money for the hours they worked.

This may be the result of the growth of labor organizations. The same rise in wages was missing in the slump of 1948-49. They held level. In the great depression of the 1930's, wages went down.

Employers had also the benefit of lower prices for farm products and many other materials they bought. A world-wide decline in commodity prices had got under way before the business slump reached this country.

Of all the great groups of producers, only the farmers have been left out of the favors of new economic habits in this country. Prices of their products slumped badly, before and during. The costs of goods and services they bought went down in the last recession but actually upward in this one, though slightly.

Some of these circumstances may figure in the approaching political campaign. Both parties can refer to them. People will argue over how far stability ought to go. The controversy may become frightfully involved, as it frequently does in the dry field of economics.

Labor Day has often been a turning point in a business recession—either way, for better or for even worse. Many decisions are put off until early September. This time there is hope they are being made in directions encouraging to fast recovery.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

HISTORICAL TOUR — The Wisconsin Historical Society is a thriving organization whose interests are not confined to the Badger state.

This was evident in Escanaba on Sunday when a group of Wisconsin Historical Society members stopped here on a tour of Northern Michigan. They stayed overnight and while here their leader, Walter Bubbert of Milwaukee, visited for a time with Dave Coon, a director of the Delta County Historical Society.

The group had gone from Milwaukee to Ludington and there had visited the site where Fr. Marquette had been first interred before his body was removed to the Jesuit mission at St. Ignace. The historians then went to St. Ignace and on to Escanaba.

Here they were particularly interested in the Chicago & North Western Railway ore docks and division headquarters, because the Wisconsin historians are working on a history of the C&NW, Bubbert told Coon.

No doubt they were informed that Escanaba was a railway terminal in 1862, some 10 years before the C&NW extended its line northward to Escanaba from Green Bay. The first railway here was the Peninsula railway, built to carry iron ore from Ishpeming to the docks at Escanaba.

From Escanaba the group continued on toward their home state, with the next stop at Lena. The tour has become an annual event for the historians, but this is their first trip into Michigan.

A NEW BOOK—George T. Springer of Minneapolis, formerly of Gladstone, wishes to remind me that the latest book concerning the Upper Peninsula is off the press.

It is Robert Traver's "Small Town D. A." and is published by E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc., New York. The publishers describe it as a book about "murders and madams, rapes and robberies, informers and reformers—the dramatic and often hilarious true story of fourteen years as a D. A. in Michigan's rugged Upper Peninsula."

So much for the blurb, but who is Robert Traver? He is Robert Voelker of Ishpeming, for many years prosecuting attorney of Marquette County.

Perhaps you will recall other books by the same author: "Backwoods Troubles" and a low-life account of high jinks among "Danny And The Boys."

Some readers may say the Upper Peninsula was never a region like that described by Robert Traver, but if you doubt his entertainment value, take Springer's word for it that "you'll get a tremendous shove" out of the work of Mr. Traver, alias Mr. Voelker.

IN AGREEMENT—In the mail (besides the letter from Springer) is a note from William S. Crowe of Manistique, who wrote from a bed in Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital where he was recovering from an attack of asthma.

"I want to compliment you on your article in last night's (Aug. 1) Press regarding young people going back to school. It is as fine an article as I have read in a long time, and absolutely true."

Such letters are heartening and confirm my belief that more people view the younger generation as the hope of the world than as a lost-cause generation of juvenile delinquents.

Our boys and girls are hard-working, ambitious, eager and idealistic. If adults in general and parents in particular would more often express their confidence in them they would do still better.

Too many oldsters can't see any of the millions of good boys because there are a few bad ones, or notice the many admirable qualities of millions of girls because the conduct of a few girls is not admirable.

OLD-FASHIONED WAY — Except for those who have automatic heat in their homes, this is a trying time of the year that calls for fire building and over-heating, letting the fire die down and becoming chilled.

Some friends of ours have solved the problem. They have an old stove in their parlor. A very pretty stove, incidentally, and efficient also.

Visitors admire the stove, exclaim over it, and describe the stove-owner as "clever" in solving the Autumn-Spring heating problem when a little heat is all that is needed.

The old-fashioned stove may yet come out of the junk yard and take its place as an antique alongside of the walnut table with its marble top and the old hooked rug. The difference is that the stove would serve a most utilitarian purpose.

Bitter Sage

By Frank Gruber

XXXIV

Wes Tancred picked up his cap-bag, which still stood beside the late publisher's desk, and carried it to the cot at the rear of the shop. He set it down and opened it up and then he heard the door open. He whirled, then relaxed.

A group of men were coming into the shop. Gil Packard was in the lead. Tancred recognized the others as Judge Kraft, Prosecutor Glassman, and two men who had been elected to the city council along with the others.

"Mr. Tancred," said Gil Packard, as the spokesman for the group, "we're here because we've all just read this week's Star."

Tancred regarded Packard narrowly. "Yes?"

"We represent the duly elected officials of Sage City and the County of Sage. We were legally elected and although we haven't as yet performed any duties, we intend to do so . . ." He paused to moisten his lips. "That is, on one condition."

Tancred waited. Packard shot a quick look around his little group, saw that no one had weakened, and drew a deep breath. "On condition that you accept the job of town marshal . . ."

Tancred stared at them. "You know that I am Wes Tancred?"

"We know it."

The door opened again and Lee Kinnaird came in. Tancred said, "Lee, they want me to be marshal."

"Have they promised you any special kind of funeral?" Kinnaird held aloft a copy of the Star.

"If necessary, we'll form a vigilante committee," Packard said, angrily.

"Then you don't need a marshal," Tancred said, quickly.

Herb Glassman stepped forward. He threw up his hand. "Wait a minute, Tancred. There'll be no vigilante committee. I'll go along with the rest on most anything—as long as it's legal. But just because Jacob Fugger's broken every law in the book doesn't mean that we should . . ."

Judge Kraft cleared his throat. "Glassman's right, we've got to uphold the law."

Kinnaird touched the bandage on his head. "Last week I arrested a man named Smith. I did it quite legal-like and he was taken away from me in a very unlegal-like manner." He pointed to Glassman. "Did you issue any warrants, Prosecutor?" He whirled on Judge Kraft. "Did you sentence anyone last week, Judge?" He turned back to Tancred. "Don't do it, Wes. They'll let you go out and face Eric Stratemeyer and Dave Helm and they'll be behind you . . . a long ways behind. So far behind that the bullets can't hit them."

Packard asked savagely, "Have you gone over to Fugger's side, Kinnaird?"

Kinnaird grinned crookedly and walked out of the shop. When the door was closed the councilmen looked uneasily at one another. Tancred drew a deep breath.

"I've thrown it in Fugger's teeth. I've got to back it up . . . I'll take the job . . ."

The councilmen shouted and began to converge on Tancred. He held up his hand. "I'll take the badge, but I'm warning you—I won't give it back until it's all over. I mean that, no matter how quickly you change your minds, I'll see it through."

"I won't quit!" shouted Gil Packard. "I promise you that."

Tancred walked back to the cot and reaching in, took out a heavy bundle. He unrolled it, exposing his revolver. "This gun," he told his visitors, "is the gun that killed Sam Older. I'm telling you that now because it's going to be thrown into your faces . . . that I'm the man who killed Sam Older. Yes, I killed him. I'll tell you this, too, I received no reward for killing Older. I killed him to keep him from killing me. There are no charges against me anywhere. That's as much as I'm going to say about myself—and Sam Older."

He spun the cylinder of the revolver, saw that it was working smoothly and thrust the gun under the waistband of his trousers. Nodding to the councilmen he went past them and left the shop.

On South Street, Tancred crossed to the jail. As he neared the door it was opened and Chuck Gorey stepped out. "Well, if it ain't Mr. Tancred," Gorey said, thinly.

"Give me your badge, Gorey," Tancred said. "You're through as marshal of Sage City."

"What?" gasped Gorey. Then his face turned a sudden crimson. "What're you trying to pull?"

"The city council's appointed me marshal," Tancred said in a deadly calm voice.

"What city council? I mean—they got no right."

Tancred held out his hand. "Give me your badge."

Gorey's eyes dropped to the revolver, the first time he had ever seen Tancred with a gun. A sudden whine came into his voice. "You're trying to make me draw on you . . ."

"For the last time, give me that badge!"

A palsy shook Gorey and he had trouble unpinning the badge. Tancred took it and pinned it on his shirt. "Put your keys on the desk inside," he said evenly. "Then get out—and don't cross me, because if you do, I'll kill you."

He turned and walked away. Gorey stared at Tancred's back and the temptation to draw his gun and shoot Tancred must have been deep. But something kept him from doing it; fear that Tancred, in spite of a bullet in his back, might still kill him.

Whistle Means It's Time For Class In Russian

By RICHARD O'KEGAN

AP Wirephotos

VIENNA —Thousands of over-worked and underpaid workers in Communist East Europe are being forced to sit down and study Russian before they go home to supper.

When the whistle blows at the end of the working day for these captive people, it doesn't mean it's time to leave. It means it's time for their daily study of Russian.

In Czechoslovakia, there are at present 15,714 adult courses in factories and offices, catering to more than 250,000 persons. In Romania, 16,000 "popular" classes instruct more than 300,000.

But the Czechs, Poles and others apparently don't take to learning Russian with all the enthusiasm the Soviets would like.

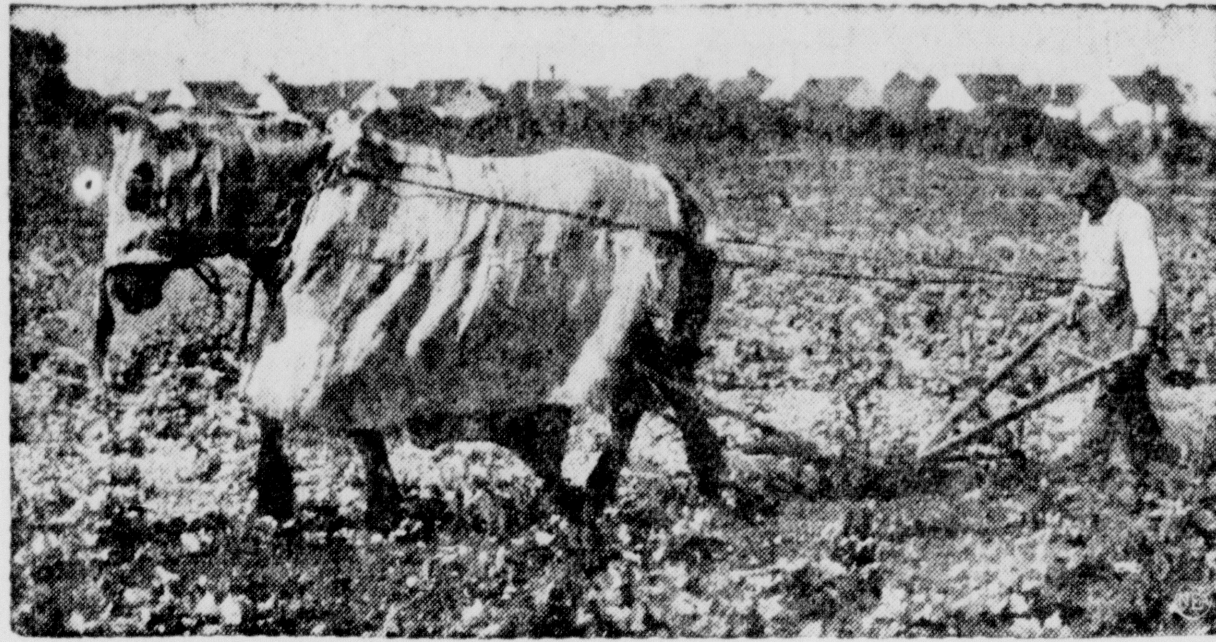

"One adult course," said the Polish newspaper Zycie Warszawy, "started with 150 listeners, of whom only 30 took the examination. In the Agricultural Bank, only four of 26 beginners finished the starting course."

On Kremlin orders, Russian now is the second language in schools of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. There are indications that ultimately, Moscow hopes to make Russian the "mother tongue" of these countries.

In Prague streetcars, each week two new letters of the Russian Cyrillic alphabet are hung up for passengers to memorize. This, explained a Prague newspaper, "is the first step toward the study of the brotherly Russian language."

Soviet language teachers are being imported by the Red regimes of all the Eastern satellites.

Dr. Salk Predicts Immunity From Polio

By WEBB MCKINLEY

ROME (AP)—Dr. Jonas E. Salk, whose polio vaccine is undergoing one of medical history's most closely watched tests, reported that man eventually may gain long-term immunity against polio from as little as two injections.

The young bacteriologist from the University of Pittsburgh submitted his eagerly awaited report to physicians and scientists of 49 nations, gathered in Rome for the International Poliomyelitis Congress.

Salk developed the vaccine which has been given to 425,000 children in the United States in a massive trial supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Its effectiveness will not be known definitely until next March, when the field test results are evaluated and announced by Dr.

Thomas Francis Jr. of the University of Michigan, Salk's former mentor and also a delegate at the congress.

But Salk reported there already is evidence that the vaccine generates antibodies — virus-fighting particles — in the blood streams of vaccinated persons. He said they are equal to antibodies found in the blood of persons who have recovered from the disease.

"The indications are that such can be accomplished with as few as two injections," he reported, "provided the potency of the vaccine and the interval between shots are both adequate."

It is still not certain how long the effect of the vaccine will last, Salk said, adding:

"That there is still much to be learned is clear indeed. Nevertheless, it does appear . . . that by suitable manipulation of the dose of vaccine and of the intervals between inoculations, it should be possible with relatively few injections properly spaced to provide long-term immunity."

U. S. Warships Gone

HONG KONG (AP)—U.S. fighting ships have all but disappeared from Hong Kong since the Queen Mary fighting broke out. There usually are from four to eight U.S. Navy ships here on rest and recreational leave, but this week most of those in port quietly put to sea and no more have come in.

CROWDED AREA

Nearly a million people crowd the 991 square miles of the Saar, the largely self-governing state set up in 1947 in an effort to settle the old dispute between France and Germany over control of the Saar's fuel deposits. Coal reserves of 6,000,000,000 tons and yearly steel production of almost 3,000,000 tons give the area an industrial significance that belies its pastoral appearance, says the National Geographic Society. Forests cover more than 30 per cent of the land; crops occupy almost as much.

Niemi Rites
GRAND MARAIS — Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Niemi of Grand Marais were held Tuesday at the First Lutheran Church of Grand Marais with the Rev. Gust Wuorinen officiating. Mrs. Niemi was born in Koupio, Finland in August of 1878 and had been in the United States about 30 years. She married Victor Niemi 27 years ago. The only surviving relative is her husband, Victor, of Grand Marais. Pallbearers were Alfred Niemi Jr., Uno Mixon, Vito Mixon and Oliva Ylimaki.

Youth Center Election
The Grand Marais Youth Center which was recently taken over by Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Carrigan as directors, held an election with Rita Baynton named president, Peter Tellier, vice-president, Jerry Baynton, secretary and Patricia Engel, treasurer. Activities at the center consist of social games and old time dances. The local VFW Post has been very cooperative by permitting temporary use of its hall for the youth activities.

The Burt Township Hall is now being used but is inadequate for the large attendance due to the old fashioned construction of the main room. However, the organization hopes to acquire an old building that can be remodeled to serve as a town social hall as well as a youth center.

Mr. Carrigan is starting a second group of children between the ages of 7 and 12 Saturday afternoons and instructing them in folk dancing and recreational activities upon the request of the youngsters.

The dance held last Saturday in the VFW hall for the purpose of raising funds for the center turned out to be a huge success. Gorsche's Orchestra from Manistique played for the occasion and the group engaged the orchestra again for the Hunters Ball in November.

Town Hall Improvements
The Burt Township Hall improvements include a new coat of paint, understructure replacement and remodeling of the township jail.

School Begins
School for the children of Grand Marais and vicinity began Tuesday morning with registration. Classes reopened yesterday. Supt. Vernon Maurer and the following teachers are on the staff for the Grand Marais High School: Mrs. Douglas Mulligan, Mrs. Vito Mixon, Mrs. Charles Newberg, Donald Hendricks, Martin Hansen and Emerson BonTrager. The hot lunch program will begin the second week of school.

Briefs
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shookman have returned from Indiana after attending the wedding of their son there.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Swikert of Grand Ledge have returned to their home after a visit with their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mulligan.

Prefab Houses Date Back To Gold Rush

By ED MORSE
(For Sam Dawson)
NEW YORK (AP) — Interested in a prefab house? Maybe your great-great-grandfather was, too. Commonly regarded as a business baby, the prefabricated housing industry actually has whiskers.

In California gold rush days, 5,000 prefab houses were shipped out of the Port of New York via Cape Horn for San Francisco. Some of these 1849 houses are still standing, says the National Assn. of Home Builders.

Still Some Problems
Back in the 1860's there was a Boston firm, Skillings & Flint, which sold a lot of factory-made homes, churches and small railroad stations.

Today the prefab industry is livelier than ever but some of its problems of a hundred years ago have still not been solved, although fast progress is being made.

Under the prefab system, whole walls and other sections of houses are made in a factory and shipped to the building site. The shell of a house can be erected and put under lock and key in a day. The finished home can be turned over to the buyer in about a third the time needed in custom building.

Price savings of 20 per cent or more have been reported.

Up To $40,000
The industry is growing away from the monotonous, box-like type of home it has produced in the past. Today you can buy anything from a modest $6,000 house to a $40,000 luxury home in mass produced sections. There's a new trend toward flexibility of design to suit variation in taste and location.

The industry has its own association, the Prefabricated Home Manufacturers' Institute of Washington, D. C., which puts out a monthly magazine. Most of the business is done through builders who often combine prefab methods with conventional building.

Enthusiasts argue, "You buy factory-made, autos and factory-made cake mixes—why not factory-made houses?" The argument is powerful but the success or failure of a prefab business varies widely according to local conditions.

Red Army Maneuvers
TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iranian army sources say Soviet forces across Iran's northern border have been conducting major maneuvers for the past three days. The sources said the maneuvers involved heavy artillery, fighter planes and bombers.

Visitors Like Police
DETROIT (AP)—Police Commissioner Edward Piggins invited Detroiters to visit police stations in a "Know Your Police Week." Wednesday he reported 113 of the 20,830 who came liked what they saw so much they signed up as members of the force.

Mr. and Mrs. George Butler of Marquette, who are vacationing at their cabin visited with former friends in town. Mr. Butler is a former high school superintendent here. Another former superintendent, C. Hampton and family of Beaverton were recent guests at the Newberg and Picel homes here.

Miss Dolores Ann McDonald has returned to Ypsilanti after spending some time here with her mother, Mrs. Emma Seymour.

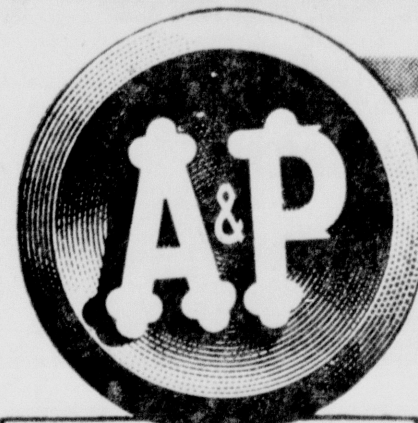

Mr. and Mrs. Add McClain of Saginaw were recent guests here at the home of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McLean.

Mrs. Forest Carter and sons Jim, Dave and Brian visited last weekend in Michigan at the home of her mother Mrs. Louisa LaCrosse.

Mrs. Carter, Dave and Brian left Friday for Muskegon where Mrs. Carter will teach. Jim remained here until the term begins at St. Aquinas College in Grand Rapids where he will return for his second year. Mrs. Carter, Dave and Brian expect to return to Grand Marais for a few days before the end of the year enroute to the join Mr. Carter who is in the Forest Ranger Service station at Friant, Calif.

Living Standard Low For Pastors

NEW YORK (AP)—The average American pastor's standard of living is below 1939, the National Council of Churches says.

The council said Tuesday night the average clergyman is the "forgotten man" financially as church membership increases, collections go up and church building is at new highs.

Among examples given were these:

The average congregational minister's salary has gone up from $1,769 in 1939 to $3,313. However, his "real" salary in terms of the 1939 dollar has dropped $35 a year.

The salary of the average United Presbyterian Church pastor rose from $1,979 in 1939 to $3,709 in 1952 — a "real" drop of $38.

The salary of the average Protestant Episcopal rector was $2,725 in 1939, and his latest annual salary is reported as $4,391 — a yearly loss of $427 in purchasing power.

Justice Butzel Still Going Strong At 84

STATE'S TOP JURIST—Justice Henry M. Butzel, 84, looks back on 25 years on Michigan's Supreme Court as he relaxes at his Detroit office. (AP Photo)

DETROIT (AP)—Henry M. Butzel, chief of justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, has rounded out his 25th year on the state's highest bench—and he's still going strong. But when former Gov. Fred W. Green named him to the post in 1929, Judge Butzel expected his term to be brief and wholly exhausting. Four justices had died of overwork in the preceding two years.

Enjoys His Job

"They warned me the job was a man-killer, so I expected to stay no more than a year or more," he recalled. "But if I had it to do over again, I'd still take the job."

Danforth

Closing Party

DANFORTH—A party celebrating the end of the summer season for the 4-H club was held at the Danforth school Friday. The evening was spent in dancing. Fred Bernhardt furnished the music and William Pintal called for the square dancing.

Guests were Roberta Sodergren and Donna Schallack of the Soo Hill 4-H, Mrs. Raymond LaMarche and Mrs. Arthur Anderson. Parents attending included Mrs. Conrad Hereaux, Mrs. Wallace Irving and Mrs. Laura Schallack.

Each club member brought a guest. Lunch was served. The next regular meeting will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Blixt.

New Microscope Aids X-ray Of Objects Too Small For Eye To See

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The General Electric Co. has developed an X-ray microscope that permits study of the internal structure of objects smaller than the eye can see.

The instrument, developed at GE's general engineering laboratory here, will be put into mass production at the company's X-ray department in Milwaukee, Wis., after refinements in design.

The microscope is said to magnify up to 1,500 times.

The fish was a symbol of Christ in early Christian art.

It's been a wonderful life."

Now 84 years old, the judge still is as busy as ever. "Every day new cases," he says, pointing to the briefs and notes and law books that litter the desk of his office in Detroit's National Bank Building. "They never end."

Justice Butzel figures he's dealt with some 10,000 cases during his quarter-century on the Supreme Court bench.

"Most cases," he says, "contain fairly clear-cut issues and are not hard to decide. But we get the tweedledee- tweedledum cases every once in a while where the issues are quite evenly balanced. Then we like to rule in favor of the lower court decision because the trial judge has had the opportunity of seeing and hearing the witnesses, which we have not."

Overhaul Needed

The judge contends Michigan's court system definitely could use some overhauling to reduce the flood of appeals which overwhelm the Supreme Court's eight justices year after year. The use of intermediate appeal courts, as in New York, Missouri and many other states, he believes could best solve the problem.

"My only regret is that I have not been able to devote as much time to these cases as they needed," he says. "It's a feeling we all share up here. The volume is just too great."

Justice Butzel also feels the state needs a new method of selecting judges. This, he says, might be achieved under the Missouri plan, which uses a combination of appointment and election.

GOOD FEEDING

by AL JOHNSON

NORTHERN FLOUR & GRAIN
ESCANABA, MICH.

MORE AND MORE farmers in this area are discovering Dairy-Lass . . . the new, bulky, nutritious feed packed full of the molasses cows and heifers really go for! Because it's so high in carbohydrates, minerals and vitamins, it makes a valuable addition to your regular feeding rations.

WHEN YOU FEED this balanced ration, along with your pasture, roughage and farm grains, cows build up strong and sturdy for the heavy milk production ahead. Dairy-Lass adds bulk to your regular feed . . . lightens rations "heavy" in corn, wheat or soybean oil meal and supplies the nutrients and minerals lacking in these feeds.

IT MAKES AN excellent feed for the time before calving—when cows should gain at least 100 pounds. Here, where every pound gained means 10-20 extra pounds of milk, Dairy-Lass gives all the essential nutrients needed! For best results feed 6-8 pounds of a 50-50 mixture of Dairy-Lass and ground oats or barley along with your best hay or silage. Dairy-Lass is ideal for producing larger heifers, too—one that produce earlier and give more milk. Heifers, from 7 months of age to 2 months before calving, need about 2-5 pounds of a 50-50 mixture of Dairy-Lass and coarsely ground farm grains daily.

Hoosier Name For Indians Still A Puzzle

By JIM CARROLL
South Bend Tribune Reporter
AP Newsfeatures
SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Ever wonder why Indiana folks are called Hoosiers? A lot of historians are just as puzzled as you are.

Most popular theory is this: In pioneer days, traveling Indians would shout, "Who's here?" as they rode past a log cabin and "Who's here," became "Hoosier." But there are loopholes. For one thing, wasn't the "Who's here?" used in other states?

The who's here theory appealed to Hoosier authors like Booth Tarkington and Gen. Lew Wallace. But James Whitcomb Riley recalled the story of a Polish army colonel, a hussar with a gauzy uniform. Impressed, the Indians called themselves hussars when they went to war, but pronounced it "hoosier," this story says.

Another theory involves Samuel Hoosier, a contractor building a canal in Ohio, who recruited workers among poor Indiana pioneers. They became skilled workers and were in wide demand when they returned. They were called Hoosiers and soon everyone claimed to be a Hoosier.

Language experts say the word was originally "hooser" in England and meant hill dweller, but modern Hoosiers don't relish the idea of being called hillbillies.

Other theorists suggest Hoosier is a corruption of "husher," a man who could hush an opponent. When a backwoods boatman whipped a flock of other rivermen, he proclaimed himself a husher and the backwoods twang made it "hoosier."

History Of Sisal Is Explained

TANGA, Tanganyika (AP) — Sisal growers here recalled the international origin of their industry when they heard of the recent death of Richard Hindorf in Berlin. Sisal, a plant from which rope and twine is made, has produced 300 million dollars in cash crops here in the past five years.

Hindorf first introduced it in 1893. The plant is native to Mexico which forbade its export. But some of the plants had found their way to Florida. Hindorf had 1,000 plants shipped to Germany from Florida. Only 66 of the 1,000 survived transport to Tanganyika, which was then German East Africa.

Hindorf was forced out after World War I. After World War II, the local sisal association learned he was living in poverty in Berlin and paid him a small pension until his death.

Gave Two Assists In Triple Play

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—Pitcher Joe O'Shields of Greenville got credit for a putout and two assists in a triple play the other night in a T-I-State League game against Asheville.

With runners on first and second, the Greenville hurler fielded a pop fly and doubled the man off second. The second baseman tossed the ball back to O'Shields, who turned his back and started for the mound. The runner on first broke for second, O'Shields whirled and threw him out for his second assist on the play and his second putout at second.

Two-Flavor Honey Being Produced

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—George Richie, a Johannesburg bee farmer, claims he has found a way to get his bees to produce two distinct flavors of honey in the same comb.

How he does it is still a secret but Richie says his combs are in great demand. He's now trying for four flavors in one.

He got the idea when a Russian delegate told an apiarists conference in Britain the mixing might be done artificially by hand.

"Why not let the bees do it?" Richie asked himself.

Lamprey War Pushed

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Mayor Claude Ver Duin arrived in Washington Tuesday for a conference with Canadian representatives on a proposed treaty co-ordinating research on sea lamprey controls. The lamprey, an eel-like parasite which attacks fish, has invaded the Great Lakes and is being fought by the United States and Canada.

Wedding Reception
A wedding reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christofferson, for Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Christofferson of Lansing. An account of the wedding from the Lansing paper is:

"Miss Virginia Ione Hatter became the bride of Gordon J. Christofferson in ceremonies at the Church of the Resurrection Saturday morning.

"Rev. Fr. James E. Lee read the double-ring service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Hatter, 1222 E. St. St. Joseph St., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christofferson of Chatham.

"For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over shimmering satin. A half length of accordion pleated lace trimmed with tiny pearls held her fingertip length veil, and she carried a white prayer book topped with white shattered carnations and stephanotis.

"Miss Sylvia Hatter, sister of

Storage Eggs Mixed With Fresh For Sale In Michigan Stores

LANSING (AP)—State Agriculture Department inspectors were instructed to watch closely for illegal mixing of storage and fresh eggs.

Miles A. Nelson, chief of the department enforcement bureau, said he had received a tip that some storage eggs were being sold in this manner.

If the eggs are advertised as fresh, Grade A or in any other way to indicate high quality, the seller may face misbranding charges.

Nelson said eggs kept any longer than 45 days may not be advertised or sold as top quality.

Class Of 1944 Reunion Dinner Held At Dells

The Escanaba High School class of 1944 held its 10-year reunion this past weekend at the Dells Supper Club. A cocktail and fellowship hour preceded the dinner and dancing followed the informal program.

Jack Molin served as toastmaster and George Rutwisch, assistant superintendent of the Escanaba Public Schools, was guest speaker. The invocation was given by Father Joseph Callari. The program included a welcome, introduction of class members, a memorial service, and awards and community singing.

Special Awards

The prizes went to Jack Way, most recently married; Mrs. June Gosnell Oslund, married the longest; Mrs. Mary De Chantel Ouellette, most children; Miss Mae De-roocher, farthest distance, and Alton Dootree, who lost the most hair.

Attractive programs featured each class member's graduation picture. Corsages of white gladiolus with blue ribbons, the class colors, were presented the women.

Arrangements were in charge of Nancy Dittich, Mrs. Gunnar Pearson, Joyce Callari, Jack Beck, Melvin Marvic and Edward Hurley.

At Reunion

Attending were:

Golden Wedding Celebrated By Groos Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Victor LaMarche, long time residents of Escanaba and Groos, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday Sept. 5, with an open house from 2 to 5 at their home in Groos. Over 100 guests attended.

The program of the afternoon included vocal numbers by Phil LaMarche, accompanied by Wil-liam LaValley. Both are nephews of the couple. A buffet lunch was served at the close of the after-noon with attractive decorations in the golden wedding theme.

Mr. and Mrs. LaMarche were presented with many anniversary gifts, including a generous purse. They also received many cards and other messages of congratula-tion.

Guests at the party arranged by Mrs. Clarence Martin and Mrs. William LaValley, nieces of Mr. and Mrs. LaMarche, included Mr. and Mrs. Polie LaValley and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Greenwood and family of Chicago, Mrs. La-Mothe and son of Manistique, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fuhrman and daughter Linda and Mrs. John Fuhrman of Perkins and many relatives and friends of Hyde Schaffer, Danforth, Escanaba and Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. LaMarche (Eliz-abeth DeNovor) were married Sept. 6, 1904, at St. Anne's Church in Escanaba by the Rev. P. C. Menard. Their attendants,

MRS. KENNETH MURRAY, who was married to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray of Escanaba at St. Philip's Church in Green Bay, is the former Colleen Kinney. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kinney, Green Bay. The ceremony was followed by a dinner and reception-supper.

Colleen Kinney, Kenneth Murray In Bridal Rites

St. Philip's Church in Green Bay was the setting at 9 a. m., Satur-day, Aug. 28, for the marriage of Miss Colleen Kinney and Kenneth Murray. The couple repeated vows on the 24th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents before the Rev. Theodore Verbeten.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kinney, 444 Ad-ams St., Green Bay, who gave their daughter in marriage, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray, 307 N. 14th St., Escanaba.

A floor length gown of white nylon tulle and Venice lace over satin was chosen by Miss Kinney for her wedding. The full circular skirt was fashioned with scalloped bands of lace and the snug bodice was designed with a scoop neckline and short sleeves, com-plemented with elbow length gauntlets. To hold her fingertip length veil of French silk illusion she wore a scalloped pillbox hat detailed with matching lace and outlined with seed pearls. Her string of pearls was the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white orchid on her First Commu-nion prayer book with staphanotis knotted in the streamers.

In Blush Pink

A sister of the bridegroom, Miss Carol Murray, was maid of honor. Mrs. Gloria Kinney, sister of the bride, was the aide. They wore waltz length frocks of blush pink chiffon over white taffeta and car-ried colonial bouquets of pink carnations outlined with white ribbons.

Calvin Kinney, twin brother of the bride, came from Williams Bay to act as best man. Leon Mur-ray of Petoskey, a cousin of the bridegroom, was groomsman and Kenneth and Larry Franchen seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a cocoa brown tissue taffeta suit with beige accessories. Her cor-sage was made of miniature wood roses from Hawaii. The bride-groom's mother was attired in a steel gray two-piece dress with tropical blue velvet accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.

Miss Carol Basche of Green Bay sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angeli-cus" and "On This Day" as the couple exchanged vows.

Breakfast was served 75 guests at the home of the bride and a dinner for 40 at the Chatterbox in DePere. The reception and sup-per for 225 at Club Riverside

'Hobo-land' Fun Day Held At Country Club

The annual Fun Day event for women of the Escanaba Golf and Country Club and their guests, held yesterday with the theme, "Hobo-land" was a gala affair.

Crazy golf was played in the afternoon and a buffet dinner was served at the club house at 6:30 followed by awarding of prizes, impromptu entertainment by club members and a fellowship hour.

Newspaper Cloth

In keeping with the day's theme, the buffet table was covered with a scalloped newspaper cloth. It's centerpiece was a barren tree limb which held bits of old cloth-ing, tin cans and cigar butts. Empty bottle candle holders with tapers were at either end of the table. Scalloped newspaper place mats were on the long table at which club members and guests were seated. Candles in bottle holders and artificial flowers completed the hobo decorations.

Miss Betty Morin received the cup in the day's golf. She will retain possession of it until next year's Fun Day. Miss Gloria Lee was awarded the prize for high putts and Mrs. H. P. Lindsay, for low. The award for the best cos-tumed foursome went to Mrs. Charles J. Byrns, Mrs. Robert O. Losse, Mrs. C. G. Bridges and

Big Town Empty In South Dakota

PICKSTOWN, S.D. — Is the housing shortage bothering you? If so, there's a whole town going begging for occupants here shortly. It's a town adequate for 3,000 to 5,000 population.

It was built to accommodate workers and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers personnel who constructed huge Ft. Randall Dam here, and cost about nine million dollars. It will be abandoned unless some suitable use can be found.

All the government wishes to retain is about 50 houses to accommodate some 100 employees who operate the dam's powerhouse and other facilities.

It's complete with a half-million-dollar hotel with 122 rooms and three apartments. There's a garage, fire and police station, large recreation hall, a huge warehouse and a modern shopping center. The railroad tracks run to the door.

But don't start packing, because you can't move in yet. The Army hasn't decided what disposition will be made of the facilities.

Disposition will be governed by congressional action directing the corps to recover at least a part of the government's investment.

Mrs. Hewitt Is Named Sheriff

Appointment of Mrs. John M. Hewitt as sheriff of Schoolcraft County to serve the rest of the term of her husband took place Wednesday forenoon.

Mrs. Hewitt will serve as sheriff until Dec. 31.

John M. Hewitt, who had served a total of nearly 18 years as sheriff, died last week.

Mrs. Hewitt is expected to take her oath of office later this week. She said Wednesday that she plans to continue L. B. Chittenden in the office of under sheriff.

The appointment was made by G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk, John S. Faketty, judge of probate, and William J. Sheahan, prosecuting attorney.

Ranger Here
Is Transferred

Edwin R. Crook, ranger in charge of the Manistique district of the Hiawatha National Forest since Sept., 1949, has been transferred to the Laona district of the Nicolet National Forest in Wisconsin, it was learned here Wednesday.

The transfer is effective the end of September but Crook will spend next week in the Laona district.

Crook, a graduate of Michigan State College at East Lansing, came to Manistique from the Shawnee National Forest in Illinois, where he also had served as ranger.

The Crook family also includes Mrs. Crook and two daughters, Barbara, 15, and Carol, 14.

Fall Planting
Work To Start

The fall planting program on the Manistique district of the Hiawatha National Forest is scheduled to start next week, it is announced.

A total of 350,000 red pine will be planted on an area near Jack Pine Lake, west of Thunder Lake. Planting operations are expected to continue for about a month.

Several men are needed in the planting crew, it is announced at the local Forest Service Office. Men desiring such jobs are invited to apply at the office, located in the basement of the post office building.

Stock for the planting work will come from several federal nurseries.

VFW Service Officer
To Be Here Saturday

Officers of the Manistique VFW post and its auxiliary will meet with Joseph W. Mann, VFW department service officer, of Detroit, at the office of Don Messier, veterans counselor, on Saturday morning.

Mann will be accompanied by Ernest A. Benette, department service representative in the Upper Peninsula.

The session at Messier's office is scheduled from 9 to 12. Members of the two units may also attend the meeting.

Freak Accident
Kills Ohio Man

A freak gun accident late Tuesday afternoon cost Carl A. Kritchett, 46, of Gahanna, O., his life.

According to state police who investigated after receiving a call shortly after 6 p. m., Kritchett was in the act of putting ice into a cooler at the Kritchett cabin near Foote's Lake, north of Cooks school.

A loaded .22 pistol he was carrying fell to the floor and discharged. The bullet entered his chest, severing the aorta near the heart.

His wife, who was standing behind him, told police that he turned around and exclaimed: "I'm shot." He then slumped to the floor, dead.

State police Wednesday made a further check of the accident.

The body was taken to the Kefauver and Jackson Funeral Home and was shipped Wednesday to Gahanna.

The Kritchetts, who own property about a quarter mile west of Foote's Lake, had been spending a vacation at their quonset cabin, and had planned to return in November for the deer season. They have no children.

Nine Traffic
Cases Heard
In Court Here

Nine traffic cases were processed through Manistique justice court Tuesday and Wednesday besides one for violating the game laws and another for malicious destruction of property.

The nine traffic cases were:

Sept. 7—Francis B. Crawford, of Clarkston, Mich., speeding with trailer, $8 fine and $3 costs; Elwyn Anderson, route 1, improper use of spotlight, $3 fine and $2 costs; James LaFleur, Berkley, Mich., speeding, $10 fine and $2 costs; Mabel Gonder, route 1, no operator's license, $2 fine and $2 costs; Leo DeMars, Manistique, failure to stop at stop sign, $3 fine and $2 costs.

Sept. 8—Jewell Coger, Gulliver, failure to yield right of way, $5 fine and $2 costs; Jeanne B. Wall, Detroit, improper overtaking and passing, $8 fine and $2 costs; George N. Rodmonich, Manistique, speeding with trailer, $8 fine and $2 costs; Roy R. Mills, Garnet, gross overload on log truck on M-28, $96 fine and $2 costs.

Jack Langan, of Detroit, on Sept. 7 paid a $10 fine and costs of $7.50 for killing a raccoon out of season. He was arrested the same day by Conservation Officer Ernest Derwin.

Three men—Walter Siombowski, Claude Evans and Jack Langan, all of Detroit—were given 10 day jail sentences Sept. 8 when they failed to pay fines and costs of $14 each for malicious destruction of property. They were also ordered to make restitution of $32 for a Forest Service building in Hiawatha township they were charged with shooting up. Authorities impounded their rifles.

Langan, one of the trio, is the same man who on Sept. 7 was fined on the raccoon killing charge.

Appointments
Made By VFW

Appointment of a 1955 Water Festival chairman and decision to launch a bicycle safety program highlighted a regular meeting of the Manistique post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Tuesday evening.

Everett N. Anderson was reappointed to the festival chairman post, a position he has held since the first water event was held.

Early appointment of a chairman was made because of the necessity of more ground preparation at the new festival site on Manistique River, it was announced.

Starting of a program of bicycle safety, a topic under discussion for the past two years, was approved at the session. Donald MacLean was named chairman.

Details of the program and appointment of other committee members will be considered later.

Three other appointments also were made at the meeting.

Ivor Wilcock was named membership chairman, John B. Nessman was appointed school safety patrol chairman, and Albert Ackerman was selected as ground observer chairman to succeed Donald MacLean, who resigned.

Proof Ballots
Ordered Here

Proof ballots for the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 2, have been ordered from the printer, it is announced by G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk.

Voters will be presented three ballots in Schoolcraft County when they go to the polls Nov. 2.

One is the general ballot listing partisan candidates for state, legislative and county offices. Five parties will be listed on the ballot — Republican, Democrat, Prohibition, Socialist Labor, and Socialist Workers.

A second ballot is the non-partisan one for the election of a circuit court commissioner.

The third is an amendment ballot containing four proposed amendments to the state constitution. The proposals are:

1. Proposed amendment to prevent disqualification of electors because of having moved within the state during the 30 days preceding an election.

2. Proposed amendment to Section 23, Article X, of the constitution relative to the sales tax and distribution of sales tax revenues.

3. Proposed amendment authorizing borrowing of not to exceed $80,000,000 to pay bonuses for military service during the Korean War.

4. Proposed amendment to Section 33, Article V, of the constitution to permit the legislature to authorize charitable lotteries.

Plan Work Bee
At River Dam

Immediate repair of the Brewery Dam on Indian River was approved at a meeting of the board of directors of the Indian Lake Property Owners Association at the Chamber of Commerce office Tuesday night.

The group decided to get things rolling by holding a "work bee" Saturday, Sept. 11, beginning at 8 a. m.

Initial work will include the removal of an existing log and stone crib in the river center, removal of a deteriorated bridge wing on the southwest side of the stream, and construction of forms for a new concrete crib and wing.

The bridge wing at the northeast end of the present dam was rebuilt of concrete several years ago.

Several members of the association have agreed to report for the work project, but other volunteers are invited to join in the work.

The property owners group, which now has title to the dam, hope to get the entire job done within three weeks before the autumn rainy season sets in. This will include setting the new form and pouring the concrete crib and southwest wing. The reconstructed dam will be of a semi-permanent nature where low water this year has caused a serious problem for cabin and resort owners.

The new center crib will be used to fasten the dam gates to.

Present at the directors meeting were Calvin Steven, president; Ivan Dawson, vice president; O. J. Schuster, treasurer; Frank Holohik, secretary; Omer Olsen, Agner Delhin, Roy Massy, Lloyd Ashe and John Girvin, directors; Leonard F. Danielson, of Detroit, who is serving as the association's legal counsel; Charles Atwater, engineer, and Jack Burgraff, who will serve as foreman on the dam reconstruction job.

Completion date of the project is Sept.

Fine Three As Drunk Drivers

Among the more than 100 tickets issued by Michigan State Police over the Labor Day weekend three were for drunk driving and the recipients have appeared in court and been fined.

Harvey Beauchamp, Escanaba, was arrested in Harris township on charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicants, with no operator's license and driving a vehicle without Michigan registration. He was taken before Justice of Peace A. Bottkoff at Menominee who imposed fines and costs totaling $122 on the three charges.

Francis Smith, Wilson, a passenger in Beauchamp's car paid $5 and costs on a disorderly charge.

Elmer Ravet, Spaulding, was arrested in Wells township and taken before Justice Henry Ranguette at Escanaba where a fine of $50 and costs of $5 were imposed.

The third driver was Milton Hood, Newberry, who was arrested on M-35 in Maple Ridge township. He also was taken before Justice Ranguette and his penalty also was $50 fine and costs of $5.

George Cody, Escanaba, pleaded guilty to reckless driving before Justice Ranguette and was fined $25, all but $10 of which was suspended, and assessed costs of $5. State Police made the arrest.

No. 10 in a series of RARE CREATURES:

THE SWEET TEMPERED SWAY

believes that black is white and the earth is flat—if you insist on it

The SWAY is a retailer who believes everybody and everything without fear or favor.

If his employees take off for grandmothers' funerals on the day of an important ball game—he believes them.

And if all the salesmen who sold him stock said their companies were losing money on the deal—he would believe them.

After listening to sales talk, he believes one brand is as good as another, and gives them all equal display. And doesn't care what kind of advertising he gets because they all seem equally strong.

Fortunately the SWAY is a rare creature.

Most retailers know that customers do have strong brand preferences, and that preferences quickly can change.

They are quick to take advantage of manufacturers' newspaper advertising—featuring the product in their own store displays . . . and including the brand in their own newspaper ads.

Since the retailer himself advertises in newspapers, he knows that the manufacturer who does the same is really in earnest, is sincerely after the market.

He knows that the best advertising is the kind that reaches his own customers, all of them.

And he likes the manufacturer who thinks the same.

All business is local...and so are all newspapers!

It isn't often that the Escanaba Softball Association has a chance to honor the state Class A champions at its annual banquet... In fact, tonight will mark the first time in the history of the game that the state champs have been anywhere near Escanaba when the big bust was held... Escanaba Harnischfeger softball players will be honored in a big way at the dinner at the Dells Supper Club tonight.

Speaking of softball, here are the members of the St. Thomas Oldtimers League champions who backed veteran Bill Doucette in winning their fifth straight league and tournament crown... Willie Doucette, Moose Smithwick, Manager Steve Rodman, Jocko Srock, Steve Rabideau, Phil Charbonneau, Mel Bertrand, Ray Ethier, Mirko Krasich, Wilbur Whitburn, Paul Vardigan, Joe Strahan, Bill Shea and Fred LaFleur.

Switching to Upper Peninsula football, Iron River had little trouble extending the U. P.'s longest winning streak to 14 games in its opener at Bessemer Saturday night, winning 33-7... Hurricane Eddie Vergara, swift Redskin halfback who made the All-U. P. as a junior last year, scored twice for new coach Harold Bernhardt.

Mel Karkkainen of Escanaba pitched Munising into the Upper Peninsula Baseball League championship playoff by beating Marquette 4-3 on Labor Day... Munising and Hancock will battle for the league title... Karkkainen won 7 and lost 6 for Munising during the regular season and fanned 126 batters along the way.

Two of the faster backs in football around these parts will be on the same gridiron Saturday when Escanaba Catholic Central invades Gladstone in the opener for both teams... Bill Lancour of Central is extremely quick on the getaway and the Gladstone Braves have a speedster in veteran back Jim Bratonia.

Cleveland's Early Wynn Joins 20-Game Circle

By BEN PHILEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The 20-game club, that exclusive circle of pitchers, probably will wind up with six members this season.

Four have made the grade so far, with Early Wynn of the fast-moving Cleveland Indians the newest recruit.

Wynn passed his entrance exams with flying colors Wednesday night throwing an eight-hit 5-2 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. And a long-time associate of the elite, Warren Spahn of Milwaukee, moved next in line by winning No. 19 for the rip-roaring Braves, 5-2 over Pittsburgh.

Three Already Waiting

On hand to greet Wynn, who has won 20 or more twice before, were teammate Bob Lemon, a six-time member; Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, who has been in good standing for five consecutive seasons; and newcomer Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants.

With Spahn, a member five times previously, almost certain to join soon, the only other live prospects appear to be Virgil Trucks (18-8) of the Chicago White Sox, who won 20 last season, and rookie Bob Grim (17-6) of the New York Yankees.

Wynn's victory kept Cleveland 4½ games ahead of the Yankees, who beat Baltimore 8-2 in Tommy Byrne's return to the majors. Milwaukee moved within four games of the rain-idled Giants while Brooklyn slipped six games back by losing to St. Louis 6-5.

Mathews Hits 36th
In other action, Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia 9-3 and took over fourth place from the Phils; the Chicago White Sox shaded Washington 2-1; and the Red Sox beat Detroit 5-2.

Spahn blanked the Pirates on three hits after giving up two runs in the first inning. Eddie Mathews hit his 36th home run with Joe Adcock on base.

Carl Erskine of the Dodgers, who has won 16, lost his chance to stay in the running for the 20-Game Club by failing to hold a two-run lead in the ninth inning against the Cardinals. He left with the tying runs on base. Joe Cunningham cashed them in against relief pitcher Jim Hughes, then scored the

Wolverine Notebook

By JOHN BARBOUR

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The aspirin of "spring conditioning" apparently has cured the headache of "fall injuries" for Michigan coach Benjie Oosterbaan.

Last year the Wolverines lost two football players permanently and two others for the season, besides several others for a game or two.

This year only three injuries are reported—all minor.

Trainer Jim Hunt says the current squad of 38, including 14 sophomores, is in better shape than many of Michigan's teams of the past.

Hurt Last Year

Last year at this time, doctors had told Dean Ludwig, the top center prospect, and Norm Canty,

Tackle Art Walker had hurt his knee off campus and he was lost for the season. Jim Bates, an end turned center for his defensive abilities, was to be lost for the second year in a row.

Walker says his knee and leg feel good again this season. He's the prime left tackle candidate. Bates is back too. He probably will be first string center.

The only three injuries reported in the Michigan camp are minor. Tom Hendricks, one of the leading Wolverine left halfbacks, has pulled a groin muscle.

Jim Fox, letterman left guard, has minor neck and head injuries, as does end Scotty Crisler, son of Michigan's athletic director.

All Area Grid Teams Will See Action Over Weekend

All Escanaba area football teams are set for weekend action as the Upper Peninsula gridiron sport gets under way in earnest Friday night and Saturday.

The Escanaba Eskimos, who held defending U. P. champion Ironwood to a 13-6 victory margin in the season opener last week, will show before the home folks for the first time against the Sault Ste. Marie Blue Devils Saturday afternoon.

The Gladstone Braves will host Escanaba Catholic Central on Saturday in the opener for both teams.

Emeralds At Stephenson

Bark River's Broncos will don uniforms for the first time in a home stand against the Crystal Falls Trojans Saturday afternoon.

The Manistique Emeralds, who opened with an impressive 21-0 triumph over Ishpeming in the Great Lakes Conference, step out of the circuit for a trip to Stephenson Friday night.

In the Soo Blue Devils, Escanaba will be facing the defending Great Lakes champs who won seven of nine games last season. Coach Eddie Olds' team defeated Escanaba 20-0 last year.

Soo opened the season last Friday night by defeating Munising 20-7, scoring two touchdowns in the second half to break a 7-7 first half deadlock.

Braves Get Set

At Gladstone, Coach Don Protenhauer has been polishing offensive maneuvers and mapping a defense to stop Bill Lancour and Jim Greenwood, two of the big guns in the Catholic Central backfield. Protenhauer has warned his charges they will need hustle and fight against Central and their ability to keep Lancour and Greenwood in check will likely determine the outcome of the game, he states.

After weeks of work, Protenhauer has about decided on his starting lineup. Jack Beach and John Quinn will be at ends. Roger Lamberg and Larry Feldt at tackles. Tom Brewer and Jerry Leander at guards. Guy Gerou at center, either Jim Sundelius or Norman Butler at quarterback. Jim Bratonia and Chuck Burton at halfback and Walter Houghton at fullback.

There also is a likelihood that Brewer will be used in the fullback slot with Dick Ryan at guard.

On defense Chuck Farrell and Roger Carlson will see considerable action.

Bob Mineau, a second string halfback, has been lost to the squad for the season with a broken arm and it is doubtful of J. C. Miller or Gordon Thivierge will see much action because of injuries.

However, except for the usual bumps and bruises, the remainder of the squad is in pretty fair condition for the game, Protenhauer declared.

Central's First Contest

Coach Tom St. Germain's Catholic Central team, playing the first athletic contest under the colors of the new Escanaba school, will be made up entirely of former St.

Andrews Scores Quick Knockout

CHICAGO (AP)—Paul Andrews, a rangy, 6-foot-3 ex-paratrooper, is being groomed to take on Joey Maxim next in a campaign for the light heavyweight crown held by Archie Moore.

After Andrews' second-round knockout of Bobby Hughes in Chicago Stadium Wednesday night, the International Boxing Club swung into action to land Maxim for him.

"I'll see Doc Kearns (Maxim's manager) in New York next week," said Truman Gibson, IBC secretary.

Hughes, a Warren, Ohio, product who has scored 19 knockouts in 37 bouts, gave Andrews trouble in a savage first round of the nationally televised 10-rounder.

But Andrews in the second round caught Hughes as he was ducking in close with a whistling right. Hughes sagged to his knees, then to his haunches and finally stretched out on his side.

Andrews outwitted Hughes 180 to 176. It was his 29th victory—15th by a kayo—in 32 bouts.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Pitching — Warren Spahn, Milwaukee Braves, posted his 11th straight victory and 19th of the season with a 5-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Batting — Tommy Byrne, New York Yankees, tripled and scored the first Yankee run, then doubled with the bases loaded to drive in three runs as he gave up seven hits in an 8-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Kuenn Shakes Off Second Year Jinx

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—Harvey Kuenn has routed the spectre of the sophomore jinx.

The determined, 23-year-old shortstop of the Detroit Tigers has hit at a remarkable .387 clip since July 19—a span of almost two months. It has turned a dull, disappointing season into one bright with accomplishment.

The Tigers dropped a vital 5-2 decision to the Boston Red Sox Wednesday but Kuenn continued his steady hitting, collecting two singles in four at bats. It boosted his average for the season to .302—a considerable improvement over his .252 mark on that dark July 19 morn.

Leads Tigers

Since that date Kuenn has had 84 hits in 217 times at bat. Prior to that he had collected only 92 safeties in 365 trips to the plate.

Kuenn, voted "Rookie of the year" last season, needs 24 hits in his remaining 15 games to reach the 200-hit mark again. He leads the Tigers in runs, hits, doubles and batting average.

Kuenn knocked in the Tigers' first run yesterday with a hot single to center in the fifth inning. It scored Bill Tuttle from second. Moments later Fred Hatfield chased home Detroit's second—and last—run with another single to center.

Homers Hurt

Other than the way, the Tigers offered little in the way of an offense against Boston's lanky, 6-foot-8 right-hander, Frank Sullivan. Consecutive home runs in the eighth by Sam Mele and Sammy White cushioned his 13th victory against eight defeats.

Steve Gromek was the Tiger

Big Ten Seeks To Solve Scholarships

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten is expected to take action today on proposals governing financial aid to athletes and recruiting.

Demonstrated scholarship is currently a conference requirement is awarding aid to athletes. The element of need and the method of calculating it represent the principal novelty in the proposal.

If the Big Ten adopts a set formula to determine need for athletes, some officials believe that bidding for a star high school prospect would disappear since conference schools' offers of aid would be identical.

Badgers Rated Strong In Big Ten Contention

By JERRY LISKA

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—One of the Big Ten's sharpest contenders this football season could be Wisconsin's Badgers, who have perhaps the nation's best fullback, improved quarterbacking and a new flavoring of single wing attack.

Gone is the explosive outside speed provided by Jerry Witt and Harland Carl the past three seasons, but in the words of Coach Ivy Williamson:

"There won't be too many others that will grind better than we will."

Horse Is Ready Again

Williamson didn't have to elaborate on who will do most of the grinding.

Fullback Alan (The Horse) Ameche is ready again for his and fourth varsity season.

In his career to date, Ameche has gained 2,768 yards in 565 smashes for a 4.8 average. During that three-season span, Wisconsin won 19 games, lost six and tied three with Ameche's rushing a prime factor in virtually every victory.

With Witt and Carl gone from the 1953 Badger team which had a 6-2-1 overall record and was third in the Big Ten with 4-1-1, Williamson had added the single wing to his T-attack to further exploit Ameche and Wisconsin's fine-running quarterback, Jim Miller.

Two Quarterback Finds

Miller, the "find" of 1953, is joined at quarterback this season by Jim Haluska, Williamson's "find" of 1952, which should give the Badgers the league's best one-two punch.

Haluska broke his leg in a baseball game in the summer of 1953 and was out of action last season. In 1952 he set all-time school records in passing. Miller last season was the Big Ten's best statistical passer and led the Badgers in scoring with six touchdowns.

The Badgers this season probably will play single wing about 25 per cent of the time. When they do, Miller will be in the tail back spot where his pass-run threat, coupled with the straight-ahead or buck-lateral smashes of Ameche, should give rival defenses something to ponder.

Williamson's analysis of his team is that it will have good passing, good power and a "pretty strong defense."

Gingrass Has Speed

The flank-skirting will be up to halfbacks Clary Bratt and Bob Gingrass, both lettermen with speed.

The Badgers have lost three of their four regular 1953 tackles, but a 239-pound converted end, Bob Konovsky, looks like he'll do at left tackle, while 216-pound Wells Gray, the only other non-letterman in the line, leads at right tackle.

At the ends, Ron Locklin, Jim Temp and Jim Reinke are able performers, while four lettermen—Clary Stensby, Norm Amundsen, Paul Shwaiko and Don Ursin—are available at guard. Shwaiko, ineligible last season, was a 1952 defensive back.

St. Germain will open with Greenwood at fullback, Lancour at left half, Bob Rodman at right half and John Berrigan at quarterback.

In the line will be John Vadnais and Joe Juetten at ends, Jim Weber and Leroy Villeneuve at tackles, Isadore Derkos and Mike Venne at guards and Arnold Henriksen at center. Mike Goymerac will replace Vadnais on defense.

The game at Gladstone will begin at 2 o'clock Saturday.

Escanaba's opening kickoff with Soo will be at 2:30. The Escanaba reserve team in a preliminary at reserve team in a preliminary at noon.

Stephenson Uses

When Coach Dick Bonifas sends his Emeralds against Stephenson Friday night at 8:15 (CST) they will be facing a new split-T offense under new coach Alton Cowan.

Cowan says the 1954 edition of the Eagles is smaller but faster than last year.

Green Bark River Team To Open Against Veteran Crystal Falls

Faced with a tremendous rebuilding task to replace 11 lettermen lost through graduation last year, new Bark River grid coach Ed Rutkowski today listed a tentative lineup for the opening game of the 1954 season against Crystal Falls Saturday at 2 at the Bark River gridiron.

Rutkowski, with the assistant Paul DeBen, have been directing the Broncos in drills for three weeks. "We will be inexperienced but the boys have shown good spirit and are willing to learn," Rutkowski stated.

Listed for tentative starting action against Crystal Falls are Frank Dubord at fullback, George

Kilbane To Be Honored As Outstanding Boxer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Johnny Kilbane, world featherweight champion from 1912 to 1923, will be honored as "the outstanding boxer" at the National Boxing Assn. convention in Cleveland next week.

NBA officials said today the 65-year-old Kilbane will accept the Helms Foundation award.

Kilbane, now a state legislator and television executive in Cleveland, won more than 300 fights during his longtime boxing career. He won the title on Feb. 22, 1912 from Abe Attell, and lost it to Eugene Cirieli. Kilbane was knocked out only twice in his career, by Cirieli when Kilbane was 34 years old, and by Benny Leonard, the former lightweight champion who retired undefeated in 1924.

With Witt and Carl gone from the 1953 Badger team which had a 6-2-1 overall record and was third in the Big Ten with 4-1-1, Williamson had added the single wing to his T-attack to further exploit Ameche and Wisconsin's fine-running quarterback, Jim Miller.

White Sox Offer

Richards Contract

CHICAGO — Chuck Comiskey, Chicago White Sox president, says Manager Paul Richards has been offered a new contract "at a slight increase" in salary and "for more than a year."
Richards' current two-year contract, reportedly for $40,000 annually and a bonus based on attendance, expires at the end of the year. He receives "a nickel a head" on every paying customer in excess of one million.
The Sox already have passed the million mark and on the basis of a 260,000 excess Richards' 1954 bonus would be $12,500.
Comiskey said the next move is up to Richards, adding that he had asked for a decision in a "reasonable" length of time.

Contract Bridge By Josephine Culbertson

Fatal Trump Lead
It does not seem that the declarer was wrong in leading one round of trumps in the following hand, but an unfortunate situation arose.

South dealer.
North-South vulnerable.

The bidding:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♣ Pass
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ Pass
2 NT Pass 3 ♣ Pass
4 ♣ Pass Pass Pass

West, with a difficult choice of leads, hit upon a heart instead of the club which would have insured the contract's defeat. South won the first trick with the heart jack, cashed the heart king to avoid a block, then led a low trump from the table. East ducking, West captured South's jack and shifted to clubs. South won, cashed the heart ace to discard the other club from dummy, then cashed the top diamonds and led a third round.

East discarded a heart on the third diamond, and after West won the trick he laid down the club queen. Dummy ruffed, but South was now in great trouble. This was the situation:
South did the best he could by leading the trump queen, but East won, made dummy ruff the high club return—and South could not get out of dummy without losing a trick to West's blank eight of trumps.

South should not have led any trumps. At Trick 3 he should have led to his club ace and discarded dummy's second club on the heart ace, then ruffed a club low in dummy, cashed the top diamonds and given the enemy the diamond trick. Now South would be safe.

American Cliff Hangers Are Taking To The Hills

By NICK ELLNA
AP Newsfeatures
NEW YORK—More and more Americans are taking to the hills. They swing dizzily at the end of a rope over precipices, climb ice cliffs and seek out the remotest parts of mountain wildernesses.

There is no way to estimate the total number, but mountaineering clubs report a rush of new members from 7 to 70 years old. A number of the clubs set up classes to teach the newcomers the rudiments of mountain climbing, provide expert instructors and stress safety.

Club Programs
Among the leading clubs in the nation are the Mountaineers of Seattle, the Mazamas of Portland, the Sierra Club of San Francisco, the Colorado Mountaineering Club of Denver and the Appalachian Mountain Club of Boston. The Seattle club's school provides an ascent of 14,408 foot Mt. Rainier as a graduation exercise. The Sierra Club stages trial climbs on rocks and cliffs around San Francisco.

The Eastern mountaineers have tamer fare, but there are plenty of cliffs in the Appalachians. The Appalachian Trail provides a footpath for hikers stretching from Mt. Katahdin in Maine, 2,000 miles to Mt. Oglethorpe in Georgia. There are also other trails to take the expert or novice mountaineer to rugged slopes that provide challenging climbs.

Western Challenge
Many of the Easterners cut their teeth on native rocks and then take off for the more rugged ranges of the West. There are the Cascade Mountains of Washington and Oregon, North of the Cascades is the Coast Range of British Columbia. South of them are the Sierra Nevadas with rock peaks and plenty of glaciers. The Rockies extend from Glacier National Park in Montana south through Wyoming and south through Colorado which has four-fifths of the nation's peaks more than 14,000 feet high.

Reports from the mountain clubs show that increasing numbers of climbers are challenging the rock and ice of these mountains.
